This line represents a $50 plan year deductible credit for completing the BlueCross BlueShield online Health Risk Assessment (HRA). If you or your covered spouse would like to complete one, sign on to BlueAccess for Members and look to the right hand side of the sign in page to click on "Health Assessment"

This line represents credit for completing an annual physical. This individual will receive the wellness premium for Plan year 2014-15 and 2015-16. The premium for those not taking an exam is $30 higher per month each for employee & spouse.

This line represents last year's credit for completing an annual exam. It was called by a different name than this year's because of line four.

About Us

This line represents the old $50 plan year deductible credit for completing an annual exam. Since we now have a monthly differential for this, there is no longer a deductible credit; so the annual physical completion now refers to the wellness premium.
