Mr. Gabriel Pereira, Student Regent, thanked Chairman Thomas, Board Members, Chancellor Sharp and his office, the Board of Regents' staff and those across the A&M System. Student Regent Pereira emphasized that most proudly, he had seen a growing, mutually beneficial, mutually respectful relationship between students and administrators. He said he had been given a peek into what it took to run an institution like Texas A&M and the A&M System, and what it was like to have a fiduciary responsibility to the State of Texas and to the taxpayers of the state.

He advised that the Agricultural Sciences Complex project at WTAMU was a Tuition Revenue Bond (TRB) funded project and would construct up to three buildings, including an academic building with classrooms, labs and offices, a multi-purpose arena with spectator seating up to 500 and, if pricing allows, a pavilion for animal showings and evaluations. Mr. Wallace said the total planning amount of this project was $48,160,000. He explained that the next project was requesting an increase to the scope and associated funding for the Engineering Education Complex. He said this project was currently under construction and included 114,000 SF of shell space, primarily located on two floors. Mr. Wallace pointed out that this increase would allow buildout of all but 10,090 SF of shell space in addition to other enhancements, such as a green roof, an engineering quad and enhancements of the audiovisual equipment. He said requested increase of funding was $56,769,000, which would increase the total planning amount for the project to $225,669,000. He stated that this was all of the projects managed by Facilities, Planning & Construction.

Mr. Wallace said The Gardens at Texas A&M University project was seeking approval to be added to the A&M System Capital plan. He said the second project was the Energy Consumption Reduction Project - Phase I at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi, which requested approval to be added to the A&M System Capital Plan and for construction. He advised that the third project was the Athletic and Intramural Fields project at Texas A&M University-Kingsville, which sought approval for construction.

Regent Buzbee noted that they had discussed making an effort to not continually amend the A&M System Capital Plan. He said of these projects, 40% were asking the Board to amend the plan. He advised that they should decide not to have a capital plan.

Regent Adams responded that these were moving targets; sometimes it was the opportunity to make needed changes.

Regent Buzbee said a five-year plan was fiction because there was no requirement for justification of a project, only a vote. He emphasized that he was not afraid of building or spending money, but had no idea how projects on the construction project status report made it to the bidding or design list. He said he knew it was difficult for him to get a project for Texas A&M University at Galveston (TAMUG) on that list. Regent Buzbee advised that there were instances where money was found and the capital plan had been amended, but they were talking about spending millions and millions of dollars. He said they had to either quit pretending this was a five-year capital plan or require some justification for the project to amend the plan. Regent Buzbee added that otherwise, they might as well not have a plan. He said he had been saying this for two years and would continue to say it.

Regent Adams reported that there must be a number of people, including regents, who believed there was justification for these projects. He asked Regent Buzbee to identify the project for which he did not see justification. Regent Buzbee replied that he did not say there was no justification, only that there should be a requirement, if they were amending the capital plan -- since it was supposed to be a five-year plan -- that justification be presented for amending the plan. He said such as they found they had $7 million or did not realize funding was available for this particular project, or there was a legal requirement to do the project. He emphasized that he was not picking on any project; it just seemed that at every meeting they were amending the capital plan.

Regent Albritton said in fairness to all parties, unfortunately the world did not remain stagnant for five years, especially for those on two-year funding. He advised that it was very hard to put a five-year capital plan together when they had no idea what the level of funding would be in two years. He said the only thing they could really plan on with a five-year capital plan was money earmarked for a specific project. He said he agreed with Regent Adams that they had to have a road map, and maybe they were being caught on nomenclatures as much as anything else. Regent Albritton commented that instead of a five-year plan, possibly it should be a five-year road map. He said things would pop up in the third year of a five-year plan that at the time of the plan they had no idea would be a reality or an option. He agreed that they could not call it a five-year capital plan because they had not identified all the funding or opportunities in that five-year plan. He pointed out that until they knew the funding and the needs of the chief executive officers (CEOs), it was difficult not to have changes. Regent Albritton suggested that they change it from a capital plan that outlined what they were going to do, which historically had not worked out the way it was intended.

Regent Buzbee said this was not a personal criticism; he just raised the issue that maybe they needed to call it something different. He stated that any governmental entity was going to utilize the money it found available. He said he hoped they were not deciding what to build based upon the money that was available versus what they actually needed. Regent Buzbee noted that he heard some say they were unaware funding was available, but the project was still needed whether or not the funding was there. He reiterated that he was with them 100%.

Regent Morgan said at least two of the projects were from TRBs, funded by the legislature, and the projects had been needed for six years. Regent Buzbee said he understood.

Regent Adams said there was a lot to what Regent Buzbee was saying and Regent Albritton summed it up perfectly. He advised that it was impossible to have a five-year plan or possibly even a one, two or three-year plan that was static; there would be change. He said maybe in the future the capital plan title should contain an asterisk indicating it would be amended, or subject to change.

Mr. Billy Hamilton, Executive Vice Chancellor & Chief Financial Officer, explained that part of the problem with plans was that they had to be flexible. He said they would get the material into the plan, stick with it, and work the plan, which they had done that in the past several board meetings since this discussion first began. He advised that there were some special cases in this Board meeting. Mr. Hamilton said the athletic fields' donations were on the capital plan, just below the line. He noted that donations became available from the 12th Man Foundation to meet certain priorities. He said Blue Bell Stadium was completed several years ago and they needed a complementary women's facility in the interest of equity and because the team deserved the same level of respect given the baseball team. Mr. Hamilton pointed out that Texas A&M AgriLife had planned The Gardens for some time as a teaching center, and they received a contribution from a prominent Aggie. He said they had a problem with the energy conservation projects, because they were needed on a continual basis as part of deferred maintenance. He added that there was a sizable backlog of deferred maintenance, but loans only became available at various times. Mr. Hamilton said it was impossible to predict and in this case, a federal loan opened up that permitted this project at A&M-Corpus Christi. Regent Adams asked the interest rate on these projects. Mr. Hamilton replied 1.25% or lower. Regent Adams said that was very constructive input. Mr. Hamilton reiterated that they had taken Regent Buzbee's admonitions to heart.

Regent Foster said he was more familiar with a capital outlook than a capital plan. He explained that behind the capital outlook was an Authorization for Expenditure (AFE) and at that point the project was justified to those who must approve it. He said the third part dealt with what they had been discussing -- which was a supplement to the AFE. He advised that it was not a change to the outlook and it was not a capital plan, but a supplement. Regent Foster said the supplement to the AFE has to justify the economic benefits of that additional capital.

On motion of Regent Adams, seconded by Regent Buzbee, and by a unanimous vote, the following minute orders were approved (051 through 061):

The Board of Regents of The Texas A&M University System adopted the resolution set forth in the attached exhibit.

RADM Robert Smith, Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, TAMUG, said this had been an interesting trip for an old naval officer and banker. He added that the Board asked him to bring TAMUG more in line as a branch campus with Texas A&M, and he believed they were on a trajectory moving in the right direction. He said compliance was important, as was bringing TAMUG student affairs up to parity with students on the main campus. He said there were many to thank, and although his wife, Mary Sue, was not present today. He pointed out that he had worked in a voluntary capacity for 40 years, and knew Wolford Cain, Pat Zachry and Ford Albritton, who was a great advocate for him. RADM Smith said he was a former president of The Association of Former Students and no one supported him more than Mr. Albritton. He advised that Chancellor Sharp made it possible for TAMUG to build the Maritime Hall and without his persistence, it would not have happened on the P-3 scale. He said they had made progress and told Regent Buzbee that TAMUG was coming up in the world. He explained that the Academic Complex was online and moving forward and they had just demolished the Mariner Hall, a former La Quinta Inn, which cost the university thousands of dollars to keep open. RADM Smith said he appreciated the honor and the privilege of serving Texas A&M in this capacity.

Regent Adams thanked RADM Smith. He said when the Board called on him six years ago, he did not need another job and it was supposed to only be for four years. He added that RADM Smith had a great career in the Navy and led the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas in Houston, but he answered the call because he loved Texas A&M. Regent Adams said the Board was grateful for RADM Smith and Mrs. Smith's great service; they knew it was a labor of love.

ADOPTION OF A RESOLUTION HONORING SHANNA PEEPLES, 2015 NATIONAL TEACHER OF THE YEAR AND GRADUATE OF WEST TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY, FOR HER OUTSTANDING SERVICE TO THE YOUNG PEOPLE OF TEXAS AND TO EDUCATORS THROUGHOUT THE UNITED STATES, WEST TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY

The Board of Regents of The Texas A&M University System adopted the resolution set forth in the attached exhibit.

Ms. Peeples said she appreciated this recognition from a System that had done nothing but support her throughout her career. She noted that she was nothing but for the investment in her by others. She said being an English teacher, she thought of an excerpt from Cormac McCarthy's novel, No Country for Old Men. Ms. Peeples explained that a West Texas sheriff was talking about coming upon a trough which had been chiseled out of rock, and wondered why someone put this much craftsmanship into a trough that might only get 10 years use. She said the sheriff concluded that the builder had a promise in his heart for the future and built that trough with such craftsmanship and care as a promise for the future. She advised that was what they did with education. Ms. Peeples said everything they built -- which they might never see in their lifetime -- was because they had a promise in their heart that education would make the world a little better with the seeds planted in students. She thanked them for helping all of them to do that.

Chairman Thomas called on Mr. Ray Bonilla, General Counsel, who presented a summary of Items 5.11 through 5.29 (a copy of Mr. Bonilla's powerpoint presentation is on file in the Office of the Board of Regents). Mr. Bonilla explained the campus carry rules proposed by the CEOs of the A&M System universities and agencies, and further explained that the proposed rules would go into effect August 1, 2016, unless amended by the Board. He said his office (OGC) and the Office of Risk Management worked with the universities and agencies to develop a process that worked for their campus or agency to gather input from students, faculty and staff regarding the particular safety concerns at their entity.

Chairman Thomas reported that Board action was required only if the Board desired to amend the rules as presented. He said if the Board was satisfied with the rules as submitted by the presidents and CEOs, no Board action was necessary. He asked if there were any questions or comments from the regents regarding the proposed campus carry rules, or proposed an amendment to any of these rules. There were no questions.

Chairman Thomas said if there were no amendments to the proposed rules, then the A&M System universities and agencies would proceed to implement the campus carry rules as submitted and prepare for the August 1, 2016, effective date of this important legislation.

Chairman Thomas commended Chancellor Sharp, the presidents, CEOs and many System employees and students involved on their good work in developing the campus carry rules. He said he knew this was not an easy task, and this issue had generated a great deal of public interest and strong views on both sides. He advised that these rules, as submitted, struck an appropriate balance and would serve the A&M System well going forward.

(Note: Items 5.11 through 5.29 were not amended during the meeting, and therefore, no Board action was required.)

(Note: See page 23 for approval of Item 5.30 and page 24 for approval of Item 5.31.)

Chairman Thomas presented Item 5.43 -- the appointment of a member of the Board of Directors of The University of Texas Investment Management Company (UTIMCO). He said UTIMCO is charged with managing and investing the Permanent University Fund (PUF), a $17 billion fund that benefits both the UT System and the A&M System. Chairman Thomas added that the PUF is critically important to the financial health and well-being of our system, especially our flagship university. He said this appointment is an important decision for this board of regents. By law, the A&M System board appoints two of the nine members of the UTIMCO board of directors. One of the A&M System appointees must have a substantial background and expertise in investments. Chairman Thomas said Regent Adams serves as one of the appointees and Chairman Emeritus John White also served as an A&M appointee on this board. In January, Chairman Emeritus White submitted a letter of resignation but agreed to serve until a replacement was appointed. Chairman Thomas noted that, since that time, the board has engaged in a great deal of discussion regarding the appointment of the new representative to the UTIMCO board. Chairman Thomas said he also had discussions with UT system officials and they are looking for ways to improve the investment performance of UTIMCO, a goal Mr. Thomas said he shared. Chairman Thomas said they discussed that in recent years UTIMCO's performance has lagged and has not been as strong as they would have liked. Chairman Thomas emphasized the need to implement strategies to improve that performance to best protect the PUF and generate more funding for the UT and A&M systems. He then called on Regent Adams for a discussion of this important item and to consider a motion regarding this appointment.

Regent Adams said he concurred that this board is interested in doing everything it can to help UTIMCO perform as well as possible. He said we have an opportunity to appoint Mr. Ray Rothrock, who is at the top of the game in the investment world. He is nationally known and truly an outstanding investment professional. Regent Adams said Mr. Rothrock ’77 received a Nuclear Engineering degree from Texas A&M, a master’s degree in Nuclear Engineering from Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and a Master of Business Administration from Harvard University. He said Mr. Rothrock retired from Venrock as a Partner Emeritus, and was currently chairman and CEO of Red Seal, a cyber security analytics company based in Sunnyvale, California. Regent Adams added that Mr. Rothrock served on numerous corporate boards and the Texas A&M Foundation from 2003 to 2010. He said Mr. Rothrock had tremendous expertise in the investment field and tremendous loyalty and love for Texas A&M, and was recently named a distinguished alumnus.

Regent Adams moved that Mr. Rothrock be appointed to serve as a director of UTIMCO, effective April 27, 2016, and expiring April 1, 2017. Regent Schwartz seconded the motion. By a unanimous vote, the following minute order is approved (087).

Request to Exceed Limitation on State Employment Levels
Article IX, Part 6, Section 6.10
FY 2017

MEMBER	FTE Cap	Requested FTE Increase	Revised FTE Level	Source of Funds	Justification
Tarleton State University	565.0	75.0	640.0	Appropriated	This is the same request that was approved with the FY 2016 budget. When comparing FY2012 appropriations (including all methods of financing) to those projected for FY16, Tarleton State University shows a 30% increase. However, the FTE cap has decreased from 692 to 565. When adjusted to account for outsourcing of facility operations (~125 FTE), this represents effectively no change in the FTE cap for this time period. An increase of 75 FTE would allow Tarleton to continue to address growth and strategic initiatives while maximizing the funds appropriated for this purpose.

FY 2017

MEMBER	FTE Cap	Requested FTE Increase	Revised FTE Level	Source of Funds	Justification
Texas A&M University	5,378.7	290.0	5,668.7	Appropriated	Additional FTE's needed to meet the demands of enrollment growth and strategic initiatives. Includes 252 positions previously requested for FY 2016 (179 Faculty, 73 Staff). For FY 2017, Texas A&M is requesting an additional 38 positions (25 staff and 13 faculty positions).

FY 2017

MEMBER	FTE Cap	Requested FTE Increase	Revised FTE Level	Source of Funds	Justification
Texas A&M University - Kingsville	553.6	153.4	707.0	Appropriated	Enrollment growth and additional E&G funding has facilitated an increase in needed faculty FTEs (146.4), faculty support staff (7); including new staff for the Weslaco Engineering Initiative.

The Texas A&M University System
Request to Exceed Limitation on State Employment Levels
Article IX, Part 6, Section 6.10
FY 2017

MEMBER	FTE Cap	Requested FTE Increase	Revised FTE Level	Source of Funds	Justification
Texas A&M University - San Antonio	232.9	133.0	365.9	Appropriated	Of the 133 FTE's requested, 36 FTE's are the result of the cap being reduced from the prior year despite the approval and funding received for downward expansion. The remaining FTE's (97) are to facilitate downward expansion and transform Texas A&M University-San Antonio into a comprehensive university. Of the 97 new FTEs being requested, 59 are for faculty, 37 are staff, and 1 is for administration. This request is necessary to increase staffing levels to support the additional teaching and student support needs that follow downward expansion and increased student enrollment.

Must attend 6-week summer session and complete two assigned core curriculum courses. Students who earn at least a 2.0 GPA are granted full admission for the fall. Texas A&M Blinn TEAM: Participating students are initially admitted to TAMU main campus on a part-time basis, and may earn full admission by several methods. Students are enrolled in one academic course at TAMU each semester, and the remainder of courses at the Bryan Campus of Blinn College. Students who complete 45 Blinn credit hours and 15 A&M credit hours within a two-year period, while maintaining a 3.0 grade point average at each school, are automatically admitted. TEAM students who wish to transition to A&M sooner may compete for transfer admission when they meet transfer eligibility. Finally, students who do not transition by the aforementioned methods may fully matriculate via the university's readmission process after their two year program has concluded. TEAM students are considered regular admits, but have conditions that must be met for continued enrollment. Texas A&M Engineering Academy at Blinn College – Bryan: Similar in design to the Texas A&M Blinn Team program, selected students who are interested in a major in the ~~Dwight Look~~ College of Engineering may be admitted to the Texas A&M Engineering Academy at Blinn – Bryan. Students admitted through the Top 10% or as an Academic Admit will be considered full admits with a limitation on the number of hours enrolled as an engineering student until successful completion of the Engineering Academy requirements. Students admitted through holistic review are guaranteed full admission to Texas A&M University upon the successful completion of the program requirements. The Engineering Academy at Blinn – Bryan requires the successful completion of 45 credit hours at Blinn and 15 credit hours at A&M. Successful completion is defined as achieving a minimum 2.50 cumulative grade point average at both institutions (as calculated by Texas A&M University). At least 12-15 hours taken at A&M must be in three or four credit hour courses (with the exception of ENGR 111 or 112 that are each 2 credit hour courses). Courses taken at Blinn must satisfy the A&M Core Curriculum or an engineering degree requirement. These students are considered regular admits, but have conditions that must be met for continued enrollment. Texas A&M Engineering Academies with Select Community Colleges: Similar in design to the Texas A&M Blinn Team program, selected students who are interested in a major in the ~~Dwight Look~~ College of Engineering may be admitted to the Texas A&M Engineering Academy under current MOUs at Blinn College – Brenham and Houston Community College (HCC) Spring Branch Campus. Additional MOUs may include other community colleges. An academy student must enroll for a minimum of 12 total credit hours each fall and spring semester. Three to five credit hours will be taught by Texas A&M and the remainder will be from the community college. Students who successfully complete the Academy by the first summer term following their second year with a minimum GPA of 2.50 at both institutions, as calculated by Texas A&M, will be automatically admitted to Texas A&M for the following fall. These students can then apply for a change of curriculum into a degree granting major in the Look College. Students apply directly to the community college. The final decision of admission is determined by Texas A&M's Office of Admissions. Engineering at Galveston The Engineering at Galveston program provides students with the opportunity for admission to engineering and addresses space limitations on the main campus. Students are admitted from the pool of engineering applications originally submitted to College Station. Students who choose to enroll follow the same entry to major process as those students currently enrolled. Program for System Admission: Students not admitted to the main campus may select one of the A&M System Institutions and be admitted if they meet admission requirements for their selected institution. A student completes their first year at the System Institution. TEAM students are considered regular admits, but have conditions that must be met for continued enrollment. Texas A&M Engineering Academy at Blinn College – Bryan: Similar in design to the Texas A&M Blinn Team program, selected students who are interested in a major in the College of Engineering may be admitted to the Texas A&M Engineering Academy at Blinn – Bryan. The Engineering Academy at Blinn – Bryan requires the successful completion of 45 credit hours at Blinn and 15 credit hours at A&M. Successful completion is defined as achieving a minimum 2.50 cumulative grade point average at both institutions (as calculated by Texas A&M University). At least 12-15 hours taken at A&M must be in three or four credit hour courses (with the exception of ENGR 111 or 112 that are each 2 credit hour courses). Courses taken at Blinn must satisfy the A&M Core Curriculum or an engineering degree requirement. These students are considered regular admits, but have conditions that must be met for continued enrollment.

Texas A&M Engineering Academies with Select Community Colleges:
Similar in design to the Texas A&M Blinn Team program, selected students who are interested in a major in the College of Engineering may be admitted to the Texas A&M Engineering Academy under current MOUs at Blinn College – Brenham and Houston Community College (HCC) Spring Branch Campus. Additional MOUs may include other community colleges. An academy student must enroll for a minimum of 12 total credit hours each fall and spring semester. Three to five credit hours will be taught by Texas A&M and the remainder will be from the community college. Students who successfully complete the Academy by the first summer term following their second year with a minimum GPA of 2.50 at both institutions, as calculated by Texas A&M, will be automatically admitted to Texas A&M for the following fall. These students can then apply for a change of curriculum into a degree granting major in the Look College. Students apply directly to the community college. The final decision of admission is determined by Texas A&M's Office of Admissions.

Engineering at Galveston
The Engineering at Galveston program provides students with the opportunity for admission to engineering and addresses space limitations on the main campus. Students are admitted from the pool of engineering applications originally submitted to College Station. Students who choose to enroll follow the same entry to major process as those students currently enrolled.

Program for System Admission:
Students not admitted to the main campus may select one of the A&M System Institutions and be admitted if they meet admission requirements for their selected institution. A student completes their first year at the System Institution. The program is limited to 6 specific areas of study (Agriculture & Life Sciences, Architecture, Education, Geosciences, Liberal Arts and Science) and requires that applicants finish at least 24 transferable hours with a minimum 3.0 GPA for all courses attempted in the chosen Texas A&M degree plan.

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT LEAVE LIST
FY 2017
TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY-COMMERCE

Name/ Title/ Department	Years of A&M - Commerce Tenured, Tenure-Track Service	Semester of Leave	Location and Brief Description of Leave
COLLEGE OF SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING
Allan D. Headley Professor Chemistry	11	Fall 2016 – Spring 2017	Leave will be spent with visits to Texas Tech University (TTU) in Lubbock, Texas, and attending a workshop at Wavefunction in Irvine, California. While at TTU, additional research concepts will be developed through collaborations with internationally recognized researchers. Time will be spent carrying out a complete revision of a chemistry graduate course based on input gained from recognized computational chemistry scientists at TTU. Wavefunction, one of the leading developers of computational modeling software, will provide additional input for the revision of the computational chemistry curriculum. These collaborations will contribute to increased recognition of the research at A&M-Commerce and enhance the quality of its curriculum.
COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES, SOCIAL SCIENCES AND ARTS
Jiaming Sun Associate Professor Sociology and Criminal Justice	10	Fall 2016	Leave will be spent in Commerce, Texas. Dr. Sun has received a contract with Routledge Publishing to compile and write "China's Generation Gap." The book is based on the Chinese version of "Generation Gap: The Background of Transition Period in China: 1991-1994," authored by Dr. Sun and published in 1997. Leave will be spent on literature review, interviewing cases related to the writing, data collection, and presenting a written manuscript to the publisher for editing and proofreading. The timeline calls for completion and submission to the publisher by December 2016. The significant cultural gap between China's older and younger generation is leading to growing resentment, miscommunication, unrest and controversy within both political and social circles. This book will contribute greatly to the knowledge and studies of the generation gap in general and Chinese society transformation specifically. Benefits from this publication include opportunities for internal and external grants and peer-reviewed publications, and providing students with an additional resource in understanding the generation gap.
