

Exceptions to the Licensed Carry of Concealed Handguns at Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service

In accordance with state law, the licensed carry of concealed handguns will be allowed at Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service beginning on August 1, 2016. After consulting with students, staff members, and faculty, the following exceptions were proposed that take into account specific safety considerations of the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service environment. The proposals were reviewed by the Texas A&M System Office of General Counsel, approved by the Chancellor for submission to the Board, and were considered and accepted by the Texas A&M System Board of Regents on April 27, 2016.

	- When a 4H/youth event is being conducted on an AgriLife premises, a license holder is prohibited from carrying a concealed handgun, unless the license holder is a participant in the event and a handgun is used in the event. Effective notice must be given under Section 30.06, Penal Code.
	- Any agency premises leased by the agency to a third party, if the third party determines to prohibit the concealed carry of handguns on the premises and provides effective notice pursuant to Section 30.06, Penal Code - The agency rule provides agency premises located on the campus of TAMU will follow the university rule. It also provides that county extension offices located in county premises will follow the county's rules. All other Extension locations will follow the agency rule