

Exceptions to the Licensed Carry of Concealed Handguns at Tarleton State University

In accordance with state law, the licensed carry of concealed handguns will be allowed at Tarleton State University beginning on August 1, 2016. After consulting with students, staff members, and faculty, the following exceptions were proposed that take into account specific safety considerations of the Tarleton State University environment. The proposals were reviewed by the Texas A&M System Office of General Counsel, approved by the Chancellor for submission to the Board, and were considered and accepted by the Texas A&M System Board of Regents on April 27, 2016.

	- Child Development Center
	- University Student Counseling Center and Student Health Center
	- All premises where a collegiate sporting event is taking place
	- Specific locations in which formal hearings are being conducted pursuant to university rules for faculty and staff disciplinary hearings, student conduct proceedings, and academic grievances
	- Any campus premises leased by the university to a third party, if the third party determines to prohibit the concealed carry of handguns on the premises and provides effective notice pursuant to Section 30.06, Penal Code - Hickman Building in Fort Worth