Ethiopia: There have been reports of civil unrest and gunfire in the town of Assosa, in Benishangul-Gumuz regional state since June 25, 2018. Visitors should check with local security before traveling to this area.

Iran: On June 24 and June 25, 2018, protests about the economic situation in Iran took place inside and around the Grand Bazaar in Tehran. There were also widespread protests across Iran in late December 2017 and early January 2018. The risk that these protests re-occur or new demonstrations begin, remains. Travelers should exercise caution and avoid any protests or rallies and follow the instructions of the local authorities.

Please be aware System Risk Management has asked all members to prohibit travel to extreme risk countries and regions. Please reference memorandum from the Chancellor regarding procedures relating to international travel to be followed by all System members found at this link:

COUNTRY TRAVEL ADVISORY DETAILS BY RISK LEVEL

EXTREME RISK

Afghanistan
Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:
The security situation in Afghanistan is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to Afghanistan, if possible. Travel to all areas of Afghanistan is unsafe due to the unstable security situation involving armed conflict, terrorism, crime, and civil unrest. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of widespread military operations, terrorism and insurgent attacks, and high levels of kidnappings, hostage taking, suicide bombings, landmines, and vehicle-borne or other improvised explosive devices (IEDs).

It is advised not to travel to all districts in the following provinces of Afghanistan:

Kapisa; Kunar; Nangahar; Laghman; Nuristan; Ghazni; Khost; Paktika; Paktiya; Logar Wardak; Kandahar; Uruzgan; Zabul; Helmand; Nimroz; Badghis; Farah; Faryab; Jowzjan; Badakhshan; Baghlan; Kunduz and Takhar.

It is further advised not to travel to the following specific districts of Afghanistan:
Kabul (Surobi district); Parwan (Charikar City, Bagram, Ghorband/Siaghird, Jabal Saraj, Kohi Saraj, Salang, Sayed Khel and Shinwari districts); Daikundi (Gizab and Kajran districts); Ghor (Dolina/ Du Layna and Pasaband districts); Herat (Shindand district); Balkh (Chaharbolak, Chamtal/Chimtal, Daulat Abad/Dawalatabad, Hairatan Port, Kaldar and Shortipa/Shur Tapa/Shor Tepah districts); Sar-e-Pul (Sar-e-Pul City and Sayad districts).

It is advised to limit all but essential travel to all other provinces and districts of Afghanistan.
Burkina Faso
Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Burkina Faso is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to Burkina Faso, if possible. Travel to Burkina Faso is unsafe due to terrorism and crime. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of terrorist activity and common violent crime.

It is advised not to travel at all to the following parts of Burkina Faso: all areas of the country north of the town of Boulsa; areas within 40km of the western border with Mali; the W National Park in the south-east bordering Niger and Benin. It is also advised to limit all but essential travel to the rest of Burkina Faso, including the capital Ouagadougou.

Burundi
Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Burundi is extremely dangerous. It is advised not to travel to Burundi, if possible. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of ongoing political tensions, sporadic violence, clashes by armed groups, and serious crimes, such as armed robbery. Burundi will hold a referendum on constitutional reform on May 17, 2018. An increase in security activities around the country is expected, including additional police checkpoints and other measures. Travelers should limit their movements, avoid large gatherings, and remain vigilant at all times.

It is advised to avoid all travel to: areas within 1km of the border with the Democratic Republic of Congo; Cibitoke and Bubanza provinces; Ruvubu National Park; the road north of Bujumbura airport towards Cibitoke; and the main road running west from Kayanza through the Kibira National Park. It is also advised to limit all but essential travel to the rest of Burundi (excluding airside transit through Bujumbura International Airport).
Central African Republic

Country Overview:

The security situation in the Central African Republic (CAR) is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to the CAR, if possible. Travel to all areas of the CAR is unsafe due to civil unrest and crime. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of sectarian violence by armed groups and common criminal activities, such as armed robbery, aggravated battery, and homicide.

It is advised to limit all but essential travel to central Bangui between the Airport and the Oubangui River. It is further advised not to travel to the rest of Bangui and the Central African Republic.

Chad

Country Overview:

The security situation in Chad is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to Chad due to crime, terrorism, and the existence of minefields. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of widespread violent crimes, such as armed robbery and mugging, as well as terrorist attacks and minefields along the borders with Libya and Sudan. A state of emergency remains in place for the Lake Chad region.

It is advised not to travel at all to the following areas in Chad: areas within 30km of all borders, except for the capital N'Djamena (where it is advised to limit all but essential travel); within 30km of Lake Chad and the parts of Kanem and Lac regions to the west of the towns of Mao and Bol; the regions of Ennedi, and Tibesti; and the region of Borkou, except within 30km of the town of Faya Largeau (where it is advised to limit all but essential travel). It is further advised to limit all but essential travel to the remaining parts of the country, including the capital, N'Djamena, and the town of Faya Largeau.
Eritrea

Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Eritrea is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to Eritrea due to travel restrictions, limited consular assistance, and political volatility. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of ongoing instability, tensions with Ethiopia, and the presence of landmines.

It is advised to avoid all travel within 25km of Eritrea’s border with Ethiopia (except for the town of Senafe); within 25km of Eritrea’s border with Djibouti; and within 25km of Eritrea’s border with Sudan (except for the town of Tessenei). All foreign nationals, including diplomats, must apply in advance for a travel permit to leave Asmara.

Iraq

Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Iraq is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to Iraq, if possible. Travel to Iraq is unsafe due to armed conflict and terrorism. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of active insurgent and terrorist groups, sectarian militias, and high levels of violence, kidnappings, suicide bombings, and vehicle-borne or other improvised explosive devices (IEDs).

It is advised to avoid any travel to the following areas of Iraq: Anbar province, Ninewah province, Salah-Al-Din province, Diyala province, Tam’mim (Kirkuk) province, and in Erbil province, south of Road 80, and within 10km of the border with Ninewah province between Road 80 and Road 2. It is further advised to limit all but essential travel to the rest of Iraq, including the remainder of the Kurdistan region.
Lebanon

Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Lebanon is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to Lebanon, if possible, due to crime, terrorism, and armed conflict. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of terrorist activity, armed clashes, kidnapping, and outbreaks of violence near Lebanon’s borders with Syria and Israel.

It is advised to avoid all travel to: Palestinian refugee camps; the Hermel Area, including Arsal, Ras Baalbek; the Bekaa Valley east of the Baalbek El Hermel highway to the Syrian border and to the east of the main road which runs south through Rayak, by-passing Masnaa, Rachaiya, Hasbaya and Marjayoun and El Khaim, to the border, except for the town of Baalbek and the road from Baalbek to Zahlé; all areas of the Akkar district north of the Aabdeh, Halba and Qoubaiyat highway excluding Halba and Qoubaiyat; all other eastern areas of the Akkar district within 8km of the Syrian border; the town of Akkar Al Aatiqa in Akkar district; areas of Liban-Nord district north of the southern city limits of Tripoli (Trablous) and east into the Bekaa Valley; southern suburbs of Beirut defined as: south of the sports stadium and the Adnan Al Hakim road which heads west from the stadium to the Beirut-Saida (Sidon) road down to the airport (including the neighborhoods of Bir Hassan, Ghobeiry, Chuya, Haret Hraik, Burj Al Brajne, Mraije, Er Rouais and Laylake, but excluding the main airport highway, the Beirut-Saida (Sidon) road and west of there to the coast, and the area between the airport highway and the coast south of Abbas El Mousawi Road, entailing the Golf Club of Lebanon).

It is also advised to limit all but essential travel to: all other areas of Akkar district including Tripoli (Trablous), Halba and Qoubaiyat; within 500m of the Ain el Hilweh Palestinian refugee camp in Saida (Sidon); Baalbek and the road from Baalbek to Zahlé in the Bekaa Valley; Bekaa Valley west of the Baalbek El Hermel highway and north of the Beirut-Damascus highway, except for the towns of Zahlé and Chtaura, and areas between the main roads from Zahlé and Chtaura to Beirut, and from Zahlé to El Mrouj south of the Litani River except the main Naqoura-Tyre-Saida (Sidon)-Beirut highway and all areas to the west of it.
Libya
Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Libya is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to Libya. Travel to Libya is unsafe due to armed conflict, terrorism, civil unrest, and crime. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of high levels of terrorist activity and crime, including kidnapping for ransom, suicide bombings, and the use of vehicle-borne or other improvised explosive devices (IEDs).

It is advised to avoid all travel to Libya.

Mali
Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Mali is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to Mali, if possible. Travel to Mali is unsafe due to political instability, crime, and terrorism. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of terrorist activity and violent crime such as kidnapping and armed robbery. There may be a heightened risk of demonstrations and terrorist attacks in the run up to the Presidential elections on July 29, 2018.

It is advised to avoid all travel to the provinces of Tombouctou, Kidal, Gao, and Mopti, as well as parts of the provinces of Kayes, Koulikoro, and Segou. It is further advised to limit all but essential travel to the rest of Mali.
Niger
Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Niger is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to Niger, if possible, due to crime and terrorism. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of terrorist attacks, kidnapping threats, and violent crime, such as armed robbery. On June 4, 2018, three suicide bombers killed at least 9 people at a mosque in the southeastern city of Diffa.

It is advised not to travel at all to the following parts of Niger: all areas of the country north of the city of Abalak, including the Air Massif region; the province of Agadez (including the road linking Assamakato Agadez and the city of Agadez); areas of Tahoua province north of the city of Tahoua, including the city itself; the area of Tillabéri province north of Niamey, including the road from Niamey to Gao and the road from Niamey to Menaka; and areas within 40km of the border with Nigeria in Diffa, Zinder, and Maradi provinces. It is further advised to limit all but essential travel to the rest of Niger, including the capital city Niamey.

North Korea
Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation remains volatile on the Korean peninsula, and political tensions involving North Korea can change with little notice and with no warning. This poses an extreme risk to visitors. It is advised to avoid all travel to North Korea, if possible. Travel to North Korea is unsafe due to the serious risk of arrest and long-term detention of foreign nationals. In addition, U.S. passports are not valid for travel to, in, or through North Korea without a specific validation from the Department of State.

It is advised to limit all but essential travel to North Korea.
Somalia
Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Somalia is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to Somalia, if possible. Travel to Somalia is unsafe due to crime, terrorism, and piracy. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of terrorist activity and violent crime, such as kidnapping and murder, which is common throughout the country.

It is advised to avoid all travel to Somalia, including Somaliland except for the cities of Hargeisa and Berbera to which it is advised to limit all but essential travel.

South Sudan
Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in South Sudan is extremely dangerous. It is advised not to travel to South Sudan, if possible. Travel to South Sudan is unsafe due to crime and armed conflict. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of armed clashes, border disputes, ethnic violence, and crime, including carjacking, shootings, ambushes, assaults, robberies, and kidnappings.

It is advised to avoid all travel to South Sudan.
Country Risk Summaries Cont.

Sudan
Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Sudan is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to Sudan due to terrorism and civil unrest. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of the possibility of violent civil unrest, armed conflict, and criminal activity, which is particularly present in the country’s contested regions, although kidnappings, armed robberies, and carjacking occur everywhere throughout the country.

It is advised to avoid all travel to the following parts of Sudan: Darfur; the Red Sea State border with Eritrea; the Abyei region; Southern Kordofan and Blue Nile states; areas of Northern Kordofan and White Nile states south of the Kosti-El Obeid-En Nahud road. In addition, it is advised to limit all but essential travel in the areas west of the towns of En-Nahud in North Kordofan up to the Darfur border.

Syria
Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Syria is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to Syria. Travel to Syria is unsafe due to armed conflict, terrorism, and civil unrest. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because no part of Syria is considered safe from violence. Widespread military operations, involving the use of chemical warfare, shelling, and aerial bombardment, have significantly raised the risk of death or serious injury.

It is advised to avoid all travel to Syria.
Venezuela

Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Venezuela is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to Venezuela due to crime, civil unrest, poor health infrastructure, and arbitrary arrest and detention of foreign nationals. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security in Venezuela, as political marches and demonstrations, which occasionally become violent, are frequent in all areas, and crime, such as homicide, armed robbery, kidnapping, drug trafficking, and carjacking, is common.

It is advised to avoid all travel to: within 80km (50 miles) of the Colombian border in the states of Zulia, Tachira, Barinas, Apure and Bolívar; within 80km (50 miles) of the Colombian border in Amazonas state as far south as 100km (62 miles) south of Puerto Ayacucho; and within 40km (25 miles) of the rest of the Colombian border. It is further advised to limit all but essential travel to the remaining areas of Venezuela due to ongoing crime and instability.

Yemen

Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Yemen is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to Yemen. Travel to Yemen is unsafe due to armed conflict, terrorism, civil unrest, and health. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of ongoing military conflict, heightened terrorist activity, kidnappings for ransom, and unlawful detentions by rebel groups.

It is advised to avoid all travel to Yemen.
Algeria

Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in some parts of Algeria is highly dangerous, with specific areas being extremely unsafe. It is advised to exercise increased caution in Algeria due to terrorism. There is a high level of risk to personal safety and security because terrorists are very likely to carry out attacks, including kidnappings, and civil disturbances sometimes occur throughout the country.

It is advised to avoid all travel to areas within: 30km of the borders with Libya, Mauritania, Mali and Niger, and 30km of the border with Tunisia in the provinces of Illizi and Ouargla and in the Chaambi mountains area. It is also advised to limit all but essential travel to within 30km of the remainder of the border with Tunisia.

Azerbaijan

Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in some parts of Azerbaijan is highly dangerous, with specific areas being extremely unsafe. It is advised to exercise increased caution in Azerbaijan due to the risk of terrorism and armed conflict. There is a heightened threat to personal safety and security because terrorist groups continue to plot attacks and casualties continue to occur in the Nagorno-Karabakh conflict with Armenia.

It is advised to avoid all travel to: Nagorno-Karabakh and the military-occupied area surrounding it; within 5km of the Line of Contact; and within 5km of the border with Armenia. Please note that anyone who has visited Nagorno-Karabakh without the permission of the Azerbaijani authorities will be refused entry to Azerbaijan.
Cameroon
Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:
The security situation in some parts of Cameroon is highly dangerous, with specific areas being extremely unsafe. It is advised to exercise increased caution in Cameroon due to crime, civil unrest, and terrorism. There is a high level of risk to personal safety and security because of terrorist activity in areas of northern and eastern Cameroon, as well as violent crime, such as kidnapping, armed robbery, assault, and carjacking, which is common.

It is advised to avoid travel to: Far North Region; within 40km of the border with Nigeria; within 40km of the border with Chad; within 40km of the border with the Central African Republic (CAR); the Bakassi Peninsula; and Ndian division in South West Region. It is further advised to limit all but essential travel to: Koupé-Manengouba, Lebialem, Manvu, and Meme divisions in South West Region; and the rest of North, North West, and Adamawa regions.

Colombia
Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:
The security situation in some parts of Colombia is highly dangerous, with specific areas being extremely unsafe. It is advised to exercise increased caution in Colombia due to crime and terrorism, and reconsider travel to several departments throughout the country. There is a high level of risk to personal safety and security because the National Liberation Army (ELN) continues to plot possible attacks, and violent and organized criminal activities, such as homicide, assault, armed robbery, extortion, and kidnapping, are common.

It is advised to avoid all travel to: the port of Buenaventura in the department of Valle de Cauca and the port of Tumaco in the department of Nariño. It is also advised to limit all but essential travel to: the departments of Putumayo, Arauca, Caquetá, Guaviare, Guainía, Vichada, and Norte de Santander (except their capital cities); the department of Cauca (except Popayán and between the San Agustín ruins in Huila and Popayán city); the department of Chocó (except Quibdó, Nuquí and Bahía Solano, and Capurganá); the department of Nariño (except Pasto and the Ipiales border crossing); the department of Meta (except Villavicencio, and Caño Cristales); within 5km of the Venezuelan border in the departments of La Guajira, César and Boyaca; and rural areas in northern Antioquia, southern Cordoba, southern Valle de Cauca, and southern Bolívar.
Congo
Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in some parts of the Republic of the Congo is highly dangerous, with specific areas being extremely unsafe. It is advised to exercise increased caution while in the country due to crime and civil unrest. There is a high level of risk to personal safety and security because violent crime, such as armed robbery and assault, is common. In addition, political demonstrations and armed clashes can be unpredictable.

It is advised to avoid all travel to: the southern and western districts of the Pool region, including the Boko, Kindamba, Kinkala, Mayama, and Mindouli districts; the Mouyondzi district of Bouenza region; and within 50km of the border with the Central African Republic in Likouala region. It is further advised to limit all but essential travel to: Brazzaville region, except for the city of Brazzaville; and the Ngabe district of Pool region.

Cuba
Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Cuba is relatively stable and characterized by a strong military and police presence. Although crime levels range from low to moderate, it is advised that travelers to the country be vigilant. American citizens should reconsider travel to Cuba due to health attacks targeting numerous U.S. Embassy employees at diplomatic residences and at Hotel Nacional and Hotel Capri in Havana. The personal safety and security of travelers to Cuba may also be at risk. While there is no recent history of terrorism in Cuba, attacks cannot be ruled out.

If you are traveling to Cuba, it is advised to avoid Hotel Nacional and Hotel Capri in Havana.
Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC)
Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in some parts of the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC) is highly dangerous, with specific areas of the country being extremely unsafe. It is advised to reconsider travel to the DRC due to civil unrest and crime. There is a high level of risk to personal safety and security because of the activities of rebel and other armed groups, potential civil unrest, and outbreaks of violence, including killing, rape, kidnapping, and pillaging. An Ebola outbreak has been declared in Equateur province (where it is now advised to limit all but essential travel). Local authorities are working with the World Health Organization (WHO) to respond. Travelers in the region, including transit passengers from neighboring or high-risk countries, should be prepared for increased monitoring and surveillance by local authorities at all air, sea, and land ports. Precautionary measures, such as health questionnaires and temperature screenings, can be expected.

It is advised to avoid all travel to: the provinces of Kasaï, Kasaï Central, Kasaï Oriental, Haut-Uele, Haut Lomami, Ituri, North Kivu, South Kivu, Maniema and Tanganyika; areas to the west and east of Kananga including Tshikapa and Mwene-Ditu; and within 50km of the border with the Central African Republic and South Sudan. It is also advised to limit all but essential travel to Equateur province, the cities of Goma and Bukavu, and the districts of N’djili and Kimbanseke in Kinshasa.

Ecuador
Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in some parts of Ecuador is highly dangerous, with specific areas being extremely unsafe. It is advised to exercise increased caution in certain areas of Ecuador due to crime and terrorism. There is a high level of risk to personal safety and security in the northern border area with Colombia because it has a higher rate of crime, including kidnapping for ransom, than the rest of the country.

It is advised to avoid all travel within 20km of the northern border with Colombia, except for the official border crossing town of Tulcan in Carchi province. It is further advised to limit all but essential travel to the areas of Tarapoa and the Cuyabeno reserve outside the 20km exclusion zone in Sucumbios and the areas of El Angel Ecological Reserve inside the 20km exclusion zone in the province of Carchi.
Egypt
Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in some parts of Egypt is highly dangerous, with specific areas of the country being extremely unsafe. It is advised to exercise increased caution in Egypt due to terrorism. There is a high level of risk to personal safety and security because there are a number of extremist organizations operating in Egypt.

It is advised to avoid all travel to the Governorate of North Sinai due to the significant increase in criminal activity and continued terrorist attacks on police and security forces.

It is also advised to limit all but essential travel to: the Governorate of South Sinai, with the exception of the area within the Sharm el Sheikh perimeter barrier, which includes the airport and the areas of Sharm el Maya, Hadaba, Naama Bay, Sharks Bay and Nabq (although travel by air to or from Sharm el Sheikh is not recommended); and the area west of the Nile Valley and Nile Delta regions, excluding the coastal areas between the Nile Delta and Marsa Matruh.
Ethiopia
Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in some parts of Ethiopia is highly dangerous, with specific areas of the country being extremely unsafe. It is advised to exercise increased caution in Ethiopia due to the potential for civil unrest, crime, and terrorism. There is a high level of risk to personal safety and security because the country has been experiencing sporadic and spontaneous unrest, and the Somali Regional State, as well as other border areas, present a significant threat of terrorism. On June 23, 2018, a large rally in Addis Ababa in support of Ethiopian Prime Minister Dr. Abiy Ahmed was disrupted by a grenade attack, resulting in at least two people dead and around 150 wounded. Visitors are encouraged to continue to avoid any public demonstrations or large gatherings. In addition, there have been reports of civil unrest and gunfire in the town of Assosa, in Benishangul-Gumuz regional state since June 25, 2018. Visitors should check with local security before traveling to this area.

It is advised to avoid all travel to: within 10km of the border with Eritrea, with the exception of the main road through Axum and Adigrat, and tourist sites close to the road (e.g. Debre Damo and Yeha); areas off the principal roads/towns within 10km of the borders with Sudan and Kenya; within 10km of the border with South Sudan; the Nogob (previously Fik), Jarar (previously Degehabur), Shabelle (previously Gode), Korahe and Dollo (previously Warder) zones of the Somali region; within 100km of the Ethiopian border with Somalia and Kenya in the Afder and Liben zones of Ethiopia’s Somali region; and the four woredas (districts) (Akobo, Wantawo, Jikawo and Lare) of the Nuer zone and the Jore woreda of the Agnuak zone of the Gambella region.

It is further advised to limit all but essential travel to: the woredas (districts) of Tsegede, Mirab Armacho and Tach Armacho in North Gonder; and the three woredas (districts) of the Agnuak zone of the Gambella region that border on South Sudan (Dima, Goge and Etang) and the Gambella wildlife reserve.
Georgia
Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in some parts of Georgia is highly dangerous, with specific areas of the country being extremely unsafe. It is advised to exercise increased caution in the Russian-occupied regions of South Ossetia and Abkhazia due to civil unrest, crime, and landmines. There is a high level of risk to personal safety and security because Russian troops and border guards occupy both regions, and a number of attacks, criminal incidents, and kidnappings have occurred in and around these areas. Opposition protests and rallies have continued to take place, usually outside Parliament in the center of Tbilisi. Further demonstrations may occur. Travelers should avoid large crowds, be vigilant, monitor local media, and follow any local security advice.

It is advised to avoid all travel to the breakaway regions of South Ossetia and Abkhazia, and limit all but essential travel to areas near the Administrative Boundary Lines with Abkhazia and South Ossetia.

India
Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in some parts of India is highly dangerous, with specific areas of the country being extremely unsafe. It is advised to exercise increased caution in India due to crime and terrorism. There is a high level of risk to personal safety and security because of terrorist and insurgent activity, civil unrest and the potential for armed conflict, and violent crime, such as sexual assault. In addition, there have been official reports of a Nipah Virus outbreak in Kerala. Travelers to the area are advised to monitor local media.

It is advised to avoid all travel to: the immediate vicinity of the border with Pakistan, other than at Wagah; Jammu and Kashmir with the exception of travel within the city Jammu, travel by air to the city of Jammu, and travel within the region of Ladakh; the tourist destinations of Pahalgam, Gulmarg, and Sonamarg; and Manipur. It is also advised to limit all but essential travel to: the city of Srinagar and travel between the cities of Jammu and Srinagar on the Jammu-Srinagar national highway; and Imphal, the state capital of Manipur.

Iran
Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in some parts of Iran is highly dangerous, with specific areas of the country being extremely unsafe. It is advised that U.S. citizens not travel to Iran due to the risk of arbitrary arrest and detention. Overall, there is an increased level of risk to personal safety and security because of the potential for widespread protests and terrorism. On June 24 and June 25, 2018, protests about the economic situation in Iran took place inside and around the Grand Bazaar in Tehran. There were also widespread protests across Iran in late December 2017 and early January 2018. The risk that these protests re-occur or new demonstrations begin, remains. Travelers should exercise caution and avoid any protests or rallies and follow the instructions of the local authorities.

It is advised that all visitors not travel to: within 100km of the entire Iran/Afghanistan border; within 10km of the entire Iran/Iraq border; the province of Sistan-Baluchistan; and the area east of the line running from Bam to Jask, including Bam.

Israel, The West Bank and Gaza
Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Israel, the West Bank and Gaza is fluid, and specific areas are extremely unsafe. It is advised to exercise increased caution throughout Israel, the West Bank and Gaza due to terrorism, civil unrest, and armed conflict. There is a high level of risk to personal safety and security because of violent clashes between Palestinians and Israeli authorities and settlers, as well as the significant threat of terrorism and regional hostilities. Travelers should note that there currently is a heightened risk of tension in the region. Israel announced that it carried out air strikes in Syria on May 10, 2018, in response to Iranian missile attacks against Israeli forces. In addition, the U.S. Embassy in Jerusalem opened on May 14, 2018. Protests and demonstrations are expected to continue in the West Bank and Gaza.

It is advised not to travel to: Gaza; the Sheba’a Farms and Ghajjar and within 500m of the border with Lebanon (the ‘Blue Line’) east of Metula, including the northern edge of the town; and east of Route 98 along the Syrian border.
Mauritania

Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Mauritania is highly dangerous, and specific parts of the country are extremely unsafe. It is advised to reconsider travel to Mauritania due to crime and terrorism. There is a high level of risk to personal safety and security because of activities by terrorist groups and violent crimes, such as mugging, armed robbery, kidnapping, rape, and assault.
