Afghanistan
Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Afghanistan is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to Afghanistan, if possible. Travel to all areas of Afghanistan is unsafe due the unstable security situation involving armed conflict, terrorism, crime, and civil unrest. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of widespread military operations, terrorism and insurgent attacks, and high levels of kidnappings, hostage taking, suicide bombings, landmines, and vehicle-borne or other improvised explosive devices (IEDs).

It is advised not to travel to all districts in the following provinces of Afghanistan:

Kapisa; Kunar; Nangahar; Laghman; Nuristan; Ghazni; Khost; Paktika; Paktiya; Logar Wardak; Kandahar; Uruzgan; Zabul; Helmand; Nimroz; Badghis; Farah; Faryab; Jowzjan; Badakhshan; Baghlan; Kunduz and Takhar.

It is further advised not to travel to the following specific districts of Afghanistan: Kabul (Surobi district); Parwan (Charikar City, Bagram, Ghorband/Siaghird, Jabal Saraj, Kohi Saraj, Salang, Sayed Khel and Shinwari districts); Daikundi (Gizab and Kajran districts); Ghor (Dolina/ Du Layna and Pasaband districts); Herat (Shindand district); Balkh (Chaharbolak, Chamtal/Chimtal, Daulat Abad/Dawalatabad, Hairatan Port, Kaldar and Shortipa/Shur Tapa/Shor Tehs districts); Sar-e-Pul (Sar-e-Pul City and Sayad districts).

It is advised to limit all but essential travel to all other provinces and districts of Afghanistan.
Central African Republic
Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in the Central African Republic (CAR) is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to the CAR, if possible. Travel to all areas of the CAR is unsafe due to civil unrest and crime. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of sectarian violence by armed groups and common criminal activities, such as armed robbery, aggravated battery, and homicide.

It is advised to limit all but essential travel to central Bangui between the Airport and the Oubangui River. It is further advised not to travel to the rest of Bangui and the Central African Republic.

Iraq
Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Iraq is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to Iraq, if possible. Travel to Iraq is unsafe due to armed conflict and terrorism. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of active insurgent and terrorist groups, sectarian militias, and high levels of violence, kidnappings, suicide bombings, and vehicle-borne or other improvised explosive devices (IEDs). There have been protests and casualties in parts of Baghdad, Basra, and other southern governorates. Travelers should avoid large crowds and follow the advice of local authorities.

It is advised to avoid any travel to the following areas of Iraq: Anbar province, Ninewah province, Salah-Al-Din province, Diyala province, Tam’mim (Kirkuk) province, and in Erbil province, south of Road 80, and within 10km of the border with Ninewah province between Road 80 and Road 2. It is further advised to limit all but essential travel to the rest of Iraq, including the remainder of the Kurdistan region.
Libya
Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:
The security situation in Libya is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to Libya. Travel to Libya is unsafe due to armed conflict, terrorism, civil unrest, and crime. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of high levels of terrorist activity and crime, including kidnapping for ransom, suicide bombings, and the use of vehicle-borne or other improvised explosive devices (IEDs).

It is advised to avoid all travel to Libya.

Mali
Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:
The security situation in Mali is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to Mali, if possible. Travel to Mali is unsafe due to political instability, crime, and terrorism. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of terrorist activity and violent crime such as kidnapping and armed robbery. There may be a heightened risk of demonstrations and terrorist attacks in the run up to the Presidential elections on July 29, 2018.

It is advised to avoid all travel to the provinces of Tombouctou, Kidal, Gao, and Mopti, as well as parts of the provinces of Kayes, Koulikoro, and Segou. It is further advised to limit all but essential travel to the rest of Mali.
North Korea
Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation remains volatile on the Korean peninsula, and political tensions involving North Korea can change with little notice and with no warning. This poses an extreme risk to visitors. It is advised to avoid travel to North Korea, if possible. Travel to North Korea is unsafe due to the serious risk of arrest and long-term detention of foreign nationals. In addition, U.S. passports are not valid for travel to, in, or through North Korea without a specific validation from the Department of State.

It is advised to limit all but essential travel to North Korea.

---

Somalia
Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Somalia is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to Somalia, if possible. Travel to Somalia is unsafe due to crime, terrorism, and piracy. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of terrorist activity and violent crime, such as kidnapping and murder, which is common throughout the country.

It is advised to avoid all travel to Somalia, including Somaliland except for the cities of Hargeisa and Berbera to which it is advised to limit all but essential travel.
South Sudan
Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:
The security situation in South Sudan is extremely dangerous. It is advised not to travel to South Sudan, if possible. Travel to South Sudan is unsafe due to crime and armed conflict. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of armed clashes, border disputes, ethnic violence, and crime, including carjacking, shootings, ambushes, assaults, robberies, and kidnappings.

It is advised to avoid all travel to South Sudan.

Syria
Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:
The security situation in Syria is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to Syria. Travel to Syria is unsafe due to armed conflict, terrorism, and civil unrest. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because no part of Syria is considered safe from violence. Widespread military operations, involving the use of chemical warfare, shelling, and aerial bombardment, have significantly raised the risk of death or serious injury.

It is advised to avoid all travel to Syria.
Yemen

Risk Level: Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Yemen is extremely dangerous. It is advised to avoid travel to Yemen. Travel to Yemen is unsafe due to armed conflict, terrorism, civil unrest, and health. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security because of ongoing military conflict, heightened terrorist activity, kidnappings for ransom, and unlawful detentions by rebel groups.

It is advised to avoid all travel to Yemen.

Algeria

Risk Level: Moderate Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in some parts of Algeria is highly dangerous, with specific areas being extremely unsafe. It is advised to exercise increased caution in Algeria due to terrorism. There is an overall moderate level of risk to personal safety and security because terrorists are very likely to carry out attacks, including kidnappings, and civil disturbances sometimes occur throughout the country.

It is advised to avoid all travel to areas within: 30km of the borders with Libya, Mauritania, Mali and Niger, and 30km of the border with Tunisia in the provinces of Illizi and Ouargla and in the Chaambi mountains area. It is also advised to limit all but essential travel to within 30km of the remainder of the border with Tunisia.
Azerbaijan

Risk Level: Moderate Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in some parts of Azerbaijan is highly dangerous, with specific areas being extremely unsafe. It is advised to exercise increased caution in Azerbaijan due to the risk of terrorism and armed conflict. There is a moderate threat to personal safety and security because terrorist groups continue to plot attacks and casualties continue to occur in the Nagorno-Karabakh conflict with Armenia.

It is advised to avoid all travel to: Nagorno-Karabakh and the military-occupied area surrounding it; within 5km of the Line of Contact; and within 5km of the border with Armenia. Please note that anyone who has visited Nagorno-Karabakh without the permission of the Azerbaijani authorities will be refused entry to Azerbaijan.

Burkina Faso

Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Burkina Faso is highly dangerous, with some parts of the country being extremely unsafe. It is advised to reconsider travel to Burkina Faso due to terrorism and crime. There is a high level of risk to personal safety and security because of terrorist activity and common violent crime. On December 31, 2018, Burkina Faso declared a state of emergency in several parts of the country, including the whole of the Est and Sahel regions, the western provinces of Kossi and Sourou, the central-eastern province of Koulpélogo, the western province of Kénédougou, and the northern province of Lorum. Since then, at least 46 people have died in ethnic clashes in areas under threat from Islamist militant attacks. There have been regular attacks on police, military personnel, and civilians, particularly close to the borders with Mali, Niger, and Cote d'Ivoire as well as in the Eastern Region. Further attacks are likely.

It is advised not to travel to the following parts of Burkina Faso: within 40km of the eastern border with Niger; and the south-eastern provinces of Gourma, Kompienga, and Tapoa. It is also advised to limit all but essential travel to the rest of Burkina Faso, including the capital Ouagadougou.

Burundi
Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Burundi is highly dangerous, with certain areas of the country being extremely unsafe. It is advised to reconsider travel to Burundi. There is a high level of risk to personal safety and security because of ongoing political tensions, sporadic violence, clashes by armed groups, and serious crimes, such as armed robbery.

It is advised to avoid all travel to: Cibitoke and Bubanza provinces; areas of Bujumbura Rural province west of the Rusizi river towards the Democratic Republic of the Congo border, with the exception of the Rusizi Delta Nature Reserve; Ruvubu National Park; the road north of Bujumbura airport towards Cibitoke; and the main road running west from Kayanza through the Kibira National Park. It is also advised to limit all but essential travel to the rest of Burundi (excluding airside transit through Bujumbura International Airport).

Cameroon
Risk Level: Moderate Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in certain parts of Cameroon is extremely dangerous. It is advised to exercise increased caution in Cameroon due to crime, civil unrest, and terrorism. There is an overall moderate risk to personal safety and security because of terrorist activity in areas of northern and eastern Cameroon, as well as violent crime, such as kidnapping, armed robbery, assault, and carjacking, which is common. On October 22, 2018, Paul Biya was announced winner of the presidential election. Post-election protests are expected to continue. Travelers should be vigilant, avoid large gatherings, and monitor local media.

It is advised to avoid travel to: Far North Region; within 40km of the border with Nigeria, except Garoua in North Region; within 40km of the border with Chad; within 40km of the border with the Central African Republic (CAR); the Bakassi Peninsula; North West Region; and South West Region (including the towns of Buea, Muyuka, and Tiko in Fako Division), except Limbe in Fako Division. It is further advised to limit all but essential travel to: Limbe in Fako Division of South West Region and the rest of North and Adamawa Regions, including Garoua in North Region.
Chad
Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Chad is highly dangerous, with some parts of the country being extremely unsafe. It is advised to reconsider travel to Chad due to crime, terrorism, and the existence of minefields. There is a high level of risk to personal safety and security because of widespread violent crimes, such as armed robbery and mugging, as well as terrorist attacks and minefields along the borders with Libya and Sudan. A state of emergency remains in place for the Lake Chad region.

It is advised not to travel at all to the following areas in Chad: areas within 30km of all borders, except for the capital N'Djamena (where it is advised to limit all but essential travel); within 30km of Lake Chad and the parts of Kanem and Lac regions to the west of the towns of Mao and Bol; the regions of Ennedi, and Tibesti; and the region of Borkou, except within 30km of the town of Faya Largeau (where it is advised to limit all but essential travel). It is further advised to limit all but essential travel to the remaining parts of the country, including the capital, N'Djamena, and the town of Faya Largeau.

Colombia
Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in some parts of Colombia is highly dangerous, with specific areas being extremely unsafe. It is advised to exercise increased caution in Colombia due to crime and terrorism, and reconsider travel to several departments throughout the country. There is an overall moderate risk to personal safety and security because the National Liberation Army (ELN) continues to plot possible attacks, and violent and organized criminal activities, such as homicide, assault, armed robbery, extortion, and kidnapping, are common.

It is advised to avoid all travel to: the port of Buenaventura in the department of Valle de Cauca and the port of Tumaco in the department of Nariño. It is also advised to limit all but essential travel to: the departments of Putumayo, Arauca, Caquetá, Guaviare, Guainía, Vichada, and Norte de Santander (except their capital cities); the department of Cauca (except Popayán and between the San Agustín ruins in Huila and Popayán city); the department of Chocó (except Quibdó, Nuquí and Bahía Solano, and Capurganá); the department of Nariño (except Pasto and the Ipiales border crossing); the department of Meta (except Villavicencio, and Caño Cristales); within 5km of the Venezuelan border in the departments of La Guajira, César and Boyaca; and rural areas in northern Antioquia, southern Cordoba, southern Valle de Cauca, and southern Bolivar.
Congo
Risk Level: Moderate Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in specific parts of the Republic of the Congo is extremely dangerous. It is advised to exercise increased caution while in the country due to crime and civil unrest. There is an overall moderate risk to personal safety and security because violent crime, such as armed robbery and assault, is common. In addition, political demonstrations and armed clashes can be unpredictable.

It is advised to avoid all travel to: the southern and western districts of the Pool region, including the Boko, Kindamba, Kinkala, Mayama, and Mindouli districts; the Mouyondzi district of Bouenza region; and within 50km of the border with the Central African Republic in Likoala region. It is further advised to limit all but essential travel to: Brazzaville region, except for the city of Brazzaville; and the Ngabe district of Pool region.

Cuba
Risk Level: Moderate Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Cuba is relatively stable and characterized by a strong military and police presence. Although crime levels range from low to moderate, it is advised that travelers to the country be vigilant. American citizens should exercise increased caution in Cuba due to health attacks targeting numerous U.S. Embassy employees at diplomatic residences and at Hotel Nacional and Hotel Capri in Havana. The personal safety and security of travelers to Cuba may also be at risk. While there is no recent history of terrorism in Cuba, attacks cannot be ruled out.

If you are traveling to Cuba, it is advised to avoid Hotel Nacional and Hotel Capri in Havana.
Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC)

Country Overview:

The security situation in some areas of the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC) is highly dangerous, with specific parts of the country being extremely unsafe. It is advised to reconsider travel to the DRC due to civil unrest and crime. There is a high level of risk to personal safety and security because of the activities of rebel and other armed groups, potential civil unrest, and outbreaks of violence, including killing, rape, kidnapping, and pillaging. On August 1, 2018, the Ministry of Health of the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC) declared an outbreak of Ebola virus disease in North Kivu province, originating in Béni territory. On September 24, 2018, a case was also confirmed in Tchomia, approximately 200km north of the current outbreak hotspot of Beni. In addition, a new president was inaugurated on January 24, 2019. Previous election cycles have seen sporadic bouts of unrest and violence. Travelers should avoid any political rallies or demonstrations, monitor developments closely, and keep departure options under review.

It is advised to limit all but essential travel to: the city of Goma in North Kivu province; the city of Bukavu in South Kivu province; and the districts of N’djili and Kimbanseke in Kinshasa. It is further advised to avoid all travel to: the provinces of Kasaï, Kasaï Central, Kasaï Oriental, Haut-Uele, Haut Lomami, Ituri, North Kivu (except the city of Goma), South Kivu (except the city of Bukavu), Maniema and Tanganyika; areas to the west and east of Kananga, including Tshikapa and Mwene-Ditu; and within 50km of the border with the Central African Republic and South Sudan.

Ecuador

Country Overview:

The security situation in some parts of Ecuador is highly dangerous, with specific areas being extremely unsafe. Travelers should be vigilant due to crime and terrorism. There is a heightened level of risk to personal safety and security in the northern border area with Colombia because it has a higher rate of crime, including kidnapping for ransom, than the rest of the country.

It is advised to avoid all travel within 20km of the northern border with Colombia, except for the official border crossing town of Tulcan in Carchi province. It is further advised to limit all but essential travel to the areas of Tarapoa and the Cuyabeno reserve outside the 20km exclusion zone in Sucumbios; the areas of El Angel Ecological Reserve inside the 20km exclusion zone in the province of Carchi; and all other areas of Esmeraldas province outside the 20km exclusion zone.
Egypt
Risk Level: Moderate Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in some areas of Egypt is highly dangerous, with a specific part of the country being extremely unsafe. It is advised to exercise increased caution in Egypt due to terrorism. There is an overall moderate risk to personal safety and security because there are a number of extremist organizations operating in Egypt.

It is advised to avoid all travel to the Governorate of North Sinai due to the significant increase in criminal activity and continued terrorist attacks on police and security forces.

It is also advised to limit all but essential travel to: the Governorate of South Sinai, with the exception of the area within the Sharm el Sheikh perimeter barrier, which includes the airport and the areas of Sharm el Maya, Hadaba, Naama Bay, Sharks Bay and Nabq (although travel by air to or from Sharm el Sheikh is not recommended); and the area west of the Nile Valley and Nile Delta regions, excluding the coastal areas between the Nile Delta and Marsa Matruh.

Eritrea
Risk Level: Moderate Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in some parts of Eritrea is extremely dangerous. It is advised to exercise increased caution in Eritrea due to travel restrictions, limited consular assistance, and political volatility. There is an overall moderate risk to personal safety and security because of ongoing instability, tensions with Ethiopia, and the presence of landmines.

It is advised to avoid all travel to within 25km of Eritrea’s land borders, with the exceptions of the towns of Senafe and Tessenei, and the border crossings at Debay Sima – Burre, Serha – Zalambessa, and Kesadika (Adi Kuala) – Rama, plus the main paved roads leading to those crossings. All foreign nationals, including diplomats, must apply in advance for a travel permit to leave Asmara.
Ethiopia
Risk Level: Moderate Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in some parts of Ethiopia is highly dangerous, with certain areas of the country being extremely unsafe. It is advised to exercise increased caution in Ethiopia due to the potential for civil unrest, crime, and terrorism. There is an overall moderate risk to personal safety and security because the country has been experiencing sporadic and spontaneous unrest, and the Somali Regional State, as well as other border areas, presents a significant threat of terrorism. In addition, there has been ethnic violence in various parts of Addis Ababa. Several people were killed in recent attacks. Travelers should exercise particular caution around Addis Ababa and anywhere where large crowds are gathering.

It is advised to avoid all travel to: within 10 km of the border with Sudan and the other parts of the Kenyan border, with the exception of principal roads/towns; within 10km of the border with South Sudan; the Nogob (previously Fik), Jarar (previously Degehabur), Shabelle (previously Gode), Korafe, and Dollo (previously Warder) zones of the Ethiopian Somali region; within 100km of the Ethiopian border with Somalia and Kenya in the Afder and Liben zones of Ethiopia’s Somali region; the four woredas (districts) (Akobo, Wantawo, Jikawo, and Lare) of the Nuer zone; and the Jore woreda of the Agnuak zone of the Gambella region.

It is further advised to limit all but essential travel to: within 10 km of the border with Eritrea, with the exception of: the main road through Axum and Adigrat, tourist sites close to the road (e.g. Debre Damo and Yeha), and the border crossings at Debay Sima - Burre, Serha – Zalambessa, and Kesadika (Adi Kuala) - Rama, plus the main roads to these border crossings; all other areas of the Ethiopian Somali Region, including Siti zone, Fafan zone (with the exception of the main road and railway line to Djibouti), and the areas of Liben and Alder zones more than 100km from the Somalia and Kenya borders; the woredas (districts) of Tsegede, Mirab Armacho, and Tach Armacho in North Gonder; and the two woredas (districts) of the Agnuak zone of the Gambella region that border on South Sudan (Dima and Goge), Etang Special Woreda, and the Gambella wildlife reserve.
Georgia

Risk Level: Low to Moderate Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in some areas of Georgia is highly dangerous, with specific parts of the country being extremely unsafe. It is advised to exercise increased caution in the Russian-occupied regions of South Ossetia and Abkhazia due to civil unrest, crime, and landmines. There is a heightened risk to personal safety and security in these parts of Georgia because Russian troops and border guards occupy both regions, and a number of attacks, criminal incidents, and kidnappings have occurred.

It is advised to avoid all travel to the breakaway regions of South Ossetia and Abkhazia, and limit all but essential travel to areas near the Administrative Boundary Lines with Abkhazia and South Ossetia.

India

Risk Level: Moderate Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in some parts of India is highly dangerous, with specific areas of the country being extremely unsafe. It is advised to exercise increased caution in India due to crime and terrorism. There is an overall moderate risk to personal safety and security because of terrorist and insurgent activity, civil unrest and the potential for armed conflict, and violent crime, such as sexual assault. Recently, there have been violent protests in some towns and cities in Kerala over the issue of women accessing the Sabarimala temple. Travelers in the area should avoid large public gatherings.

It is advised to avoid all travel to: the immediate vicinity of the border with Pakistan, other than at Wagah; Jammu and Kashmir, with the exception of travel within the city of Jammu, travel by air to the city of Jammu, and travel within the region of Ladakh; the tourist destinations of Pahalgam, Gulmarg, and Sonamarg; and Manipur. It is also advised to limit all but essential travel to: the city of Srinagar; travel between the cities of Jammu and Srinagar on the Jammu-Srinagar national highway; and Imphal, the state capital of Manipur.
Iran
Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in some parts of Iran is highly dangerous, with specific areas of the country being extremely unsafe. It is advised that U.S. citizens not travel to Iran due to the risk of arbitrary arrest and detention. Overall, there is a heightened level of risk to personal safety and security because of the potential for widespread protests and terrorism. On September 22, 2018, there was an attack on a military parade in Ahvaz, capital of Khuzestan province. At least 29 people were killed, and more than 60 others were wounded. Terrorists are very likely to attempt to carry out more attacks in Iran.

It is advised that all visitors not travel to: within 100km of the entire Iran/Afghanistan border; within 10km of the entire Iran/Iraq border; the province of Sistan-Baluchistan; and the area east of the line running from Bam to Jask, including Bam.

Israel
Risk Level: Moderate Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Israel, the West Bank, and Gaza is fluid, and certain areas are extremely unsafe. It is advised to exercise increased caution throughout Israel, the West Bank, and Gaza due to terrorism, civil unrest, and armed conflict. There is an overall moderate risk to personal safety and security because of clashes between Palestinians and Israeli authorities and settlers, as well as the significant threat of terrorism and regional hostilities. Travelers should note that there currently is a heightened risk of tension in the region. On January 21, 2019, Israel announced that it carried out air strikes in Syria in response to missile fire towards the Israeli-occupied Golan Heights. In addition, there have been mass protests on the Gazan side of the Gaza/Israel perimeter fence since March 30, 2018. Rockets have been fired from Gaza towards Israel on several occasions, and Israel has responded with air strikes on targets in Gaza. Travelers should follow the instructions of local authorities and keep up to date with local media and travel reports.

It is advised to limit all but essential travel to the West Bank and within 5km of Gaza, and to avoid all travel to: Gaza; Sheba’a Farms; Ghajjar; within 500m of the border with Lebanon (the ‘Blue Line’) east of Metula, including the northern edge of the town; and east of Route 98 along the Syrian border.
Lebanon
Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Lebanon is highly dangerous, with some parts of the country being extremely unsafe. It is advised to reconsider travel to Lebanon due to crime, terrorism, and armed conflict. There is a high level of risk to personal safety and security because of terrorist activity, armed clashes, kidnapping, and outbreaks of violence near Lebanon’s borders with Syria and Israel.

It is advised to avoid all travel to: Palestinian refugee camps; the Hermel Area, including the towns of Arsal, Ras Baalbek, Qaa, Laboué, and Nahlé; and within 5km of the border with Syria.

It is advised to limit all but essential travel to: the southern suburbs of Beirut—defined as: south of the sports stadium and the Adnan Al Hakim road, which heads west from the stadium to the Beirut-Saida (Sidon) road down to the airport. This includes the neighborhoods of Bir Hassan, Ghobeiry, Chuya, Haret Hraik, Burj Al Brajne, Mraije, Er Rouais, and Laylake, but excludes the main airport highway, the Beirut-Saida (Sidon) road and west of there to the coast, and the area between the airport highway and the coast south of Abbas El Mousawi Road, including the Golf Club of Lebanon.

It is also advised to limit all but essential travel to: all other areas of Akkar district between 5km from the Syrian border and the Aabdeh, Halba, and Oubaiyat highway, including the towns of Halba and Oubaiyat; the city of Tripoli; the town of Brital, and the area around it up to 5km from the Syrian border, and south of Nahlé town, but excluding Baalbek town; the towns of Rachaiya, Hasbaya, and Khiam, and the area between these towns up to 5km from the Syrian border; within 500m of the Ain el Hilweh Palestinian refugee camp in Saida (Sidon); and south of the Litani River except the main Naqoura-Tyre-Saida (Sidon)-Beirut highway and all areas to the west of it.
Mauritania
Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Mauritania is highly dangerous, and specific parts of the country are extremely unsafe. It is advised to reconsider travel to Mauritania due to crime and terrorism. There is a high level of risk to personal safety and security because of activities by terrorist groups and violent crimes, such as mugging, armed robbery, kidnapping, rape, and assault.

It is advised to avoid travel to: the province of Tiris Zemmour (except the town of Zouérat); the province of Adrar (east of Atar); the provinces of Tagant, Hodh El Chargui, Hodh El Gharbi, Assaba and Guidimaka; and within 25km of the Western Sahara border (except the Noukchott - Nouadhibou corridor).

Mexico
Risk Level: Moderate Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in some parts of Mexico is highly dangerous, with specific areas of the country being extremely unsafe. Travelers to Mexico should exercise increased caution due to crime. There is a high level of risk to personal safety and security in certain areas because of widespread violent crime, such as homicide, kidnapping, carjacking, and robbery.

It is advised to avoid all travel to: Colima state, Guerrero state, Michoacán state, Sinaloa state, and Tamaulipas state. It is further advised to limit all but essential travel to: Chihuahua state, Coahuila state, Durango state, Estado de Mexico state, Jalisco state, Morelos state, Nayarit state, Nuevo Leon state, San Luis Potosi state, Sonora state, and Zacatecas state.
Niger
Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Niger is highly dangerous, with large parts of the country being extremely unsafe. It is advised to reconsider travel to Niger due to crime and terrorism. There is a high level of risk to personal safety and security because of terrorist attacks, kidnapping threats, and violent crime, such as armed robbery. On June 4, 2018, three suicide bombers killed at least 9 people at a mosque in the southeastern city of Diffa.

It is advised not to travel at all to the following parts of Niger: all areas of the country north of the city of Abalak, including the Air Massif region; the province of Agadez (including the road linking Assamakato Agadez and the city of Agadez); areas of Tahoua province north of the city of Tahoua, including the city itself; the area of Tillabéri province north of Niamey, including the road from Niamey to Gao and the road from Niamey to Menaka; areas within 40km of the border with Nigeria in Diffa, Zinder, and Maradi provinces; and the Parc du W, plus the contiguous Dosso and Tamou hunting zones. It is further advised to limit all but essential travel to the rest of Niger, including the capital city Niamey.

Country Overview:

The security situation in eastern Ukraine is highly dangerous, with some areas considered to be extremely unsafe. Overall, it is advised to exercise increased caution throughout Ukraine due to crime and civil unrest. There is an extreme risk to personal safety and security in specific parts of eastern Ukraine because of armed conflict with occupying authorities in non-government-controlled areas. Travelers should remain vigilant throughout Ukraine and follow the advice of local authorities.

It is advised to avoid all travel to Donetsk oblast, Luhansk oblast, and Crimea.
Venezuela
Risk Level: High Risk + Extreme

Country Overview:

The security situation in Venezuela is highly dangerous, with some areas being extremely unsafe. Overall, there is a heightened level of risk to personal safety and security in Venezuela due to ongoing political instability, crime, poor health infrastructure, and arbitrary arrest and detention of foreign nationals. Political marches and demonstrations, which occasionally become violent, are frequent in all areas, and crime, such as homicide, armed robbery, kidnapping, drug trafficking, and carjacking, is common. It is recommended that U.S. citizens avoid travel to Venezuela, if possible. The U.S. government has limited ability to provide emergency services to U.S. citizens in Venezuela. On January 24, 2019, the U.S. State Department ordered all non-emergency U.S. government staff and family members out of Venezuela, and strongly advised that U.S. citizens residing or traveling in the country consider departing.

It is advised that all travelers not travel to: within 80 km (50 miles) of the Colombian border and 40 km (25 miles) of the Brazilian border. It is further advised to limit all but essential travel to the rest of Venezuela.
