

Who can help me create a simple will?

Is bankruptcy right for me?

What is estate planning and how do I do it?

Where can I turn for questions about divorce?

Legal Services from Ceridian

What is the legal services program?

This program offers insureds, active or retired, and their families a place to turn for support when faced with legal questions or issues. Access a national network of 22,000+ accredited attorneys for consultation on simple wills, estate planning documents and other legal issues.

What resources are available?

Key services provided under the legal services program include:

- Will preparation services
- Living will creation
- Power of attorney services
- Review of legal documents
- Referrals to local attorneys and mediators
- Unlimited telephonic general legal information
- Free 30-minute telephonic or face-to-face consultation for each unique legal issue
- Access to online library of legal resources, guides and forms on LifeWorks.com

Can I continue services after the initial free consultation?

You may retain your network attorney and receive a 25 percent discount off the normal hourly rate. You are not obligated to retain your attorney, and if you don't feel comfortable with whom you were originally matched, you may request a referral to another attorney in your area.

Who can access these services?

All insureds covered under the group life insurance program and their spouses and dependent children.
