Consistent with System Policy 12.03 Faculty Academic Workload and Reporting Requirements and general policies developed by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board (THECB), this manual provides guidelines on Prairie View A&M University (PVAMU) faculty workload requirements, including the regulations and standards for the interpretation of institutional workload requirements and the range of acceptable assignments meeting the definition of faculty workload. Teaching load assignments are the first priority with other assignments being implemented only as institutional resources are available.

This manual should be read in conjunction with System Policy 12.03 Faculty Academic Workload and Reporting Requirements and University Rule 12.03.99.P1 Faculty Academic Workload and Reporting Requirements.

1. GENERAL

Workload Requirements

PVAMU has established a minimum contact hour teaching load of 12 hours (Graduate and/or Undergraduate) for tenured or tenure-track faculty; and, 15 hours for non-tenure track faculty. Teaching loads above or below the established minimum must be explained in official reports submitted to the Office of Institutional Research & Effectiveness.

- PVAMU has established a maximum teaching workload of 18 contact hours per semester for all full-time faculty.

- PVAMU has established a maximum teaching workload of 6 contact hours per semester for all adjunct or part-time faculty.

Who Must Be Reported

A person must be reported on the Faculty Workload Compliance Report if the person (1) is assigned responsibility for teaching a course for resident credit; or, (2) if any part of their salary is paid from faculty salaries (see definition below).

Definitions

Faculty Salaries - salaries or wages of those engaged in teaching, research and service.

Individuals paid from faculty salaries receive faculty workload credit from two areas:

- Classroom Teaching Credit - generally assigned to resident-credit courses and is the primary workload function. To ensure accuracy in workload reporting, each course should be assigned to the person primarily responsible for course instruction. For team taught courses, the teaching credit may be proportioned to the faculty members teaching the course.

- Equivalent Teaching Credits - certain non-classroom academic duties performed by faculty that enhance the teaching/learning process may be funded from faculty salaries (on a limited basis). Equivalent teaching credits may be assigned for these duties. Once the faculty member is in compliance with minimum requirements, no further assignment or equivalent credits is required. Department heads are responsible for assigning and monitoring the workload of faculty within their department to ensure compliance with the workload requirements (see Section 3).

Total Credit - the sum of the teaching load credits and the teaching equivalent credits.

2. CREDIT-GENERATING DIRECT INSTRUCTION WORKLOAD CREDITS

How Is Academic Credit Calculated?

Credit hours are normally equal to contact hours for lecture and seminar courses, i.e., 1 credit hour equals 1 contact hour. A contact hour is defined as 50 minutes. Therefore, a 3-credit-hour class meets for 150 minutes per week.

The type of instruction determines how each course is calculated as part of a faculty member's classroom teaching credit. The classroom teaching credit assigned for each type of instruction is shown below.

Table 1
Classroom Teaching Credit by Course Type of Instruction

Lecture and Seminar Instruction:

- Undergraduate Courses: Academic workload credit is equal to the credit hour value of the course. (3-credit-hour course = 3 workload credits.)

- Graduate Courses: Academic workload credit is equal to the credit hour value of the course multiplied by 1.33. (3-credit-hour course = 4 workload credits.)

Laboratory Instruction:

As with lecture courses, a laboratory contact hour equals 50 minutes. Faculty receive ½ credit for every contact hour. (A lab course that meets 3 times per week would yield 1.5 contact hours).

Lecture/Lab Courses:

Academic workload credit is based on combined credit hours for the lecture and ½ of the contact hours for the lab. (The lecture portion of a 2:3 lecture/lab course = 2 workload credits for the lecture and 1.5 contact hours for the lab, for a total workload value of 3.5 hours).

Intensive Laboratory (Nursing Clinical, Music Ensemble, Studio Art, etc.):

Academic workload credit is equal to the instructional contact hours per week multiplied by .67. (3-contact-hour lab section = 2 workload credits; 6-contact-hour art studio and nursing clinical = 4 workload credits; graduate or undergraduate).

Independent Study and Research:

The total semester credit hours (number of students multiplied by semester credit-hour value of the course) are summed for all such courses for each faculty member, up to a maximum of 3 teaching credits per faculty. (A 3-credit-hour course with 3 enrollees = 3 workload credits. 3*3/3 = 3 workload credits).

Student Teacher Supervision:

Academic workload credit for supervising student teachers in a 6-credit-hour course is 0.5 workload credit per student enrolled. Academic workload credit for supervising student teachers in a 3-credit-hour course is 0.25 workload credit per student enrolled. (6 students enrolled in a 6-hour student teaching course = 3 academic workload credits).

Practicum and Internship Courses:

If the course enrollment meets the minimum requirement, academic workload credit equals the credit hour value of the course (not to exceed 3 SCH's).

Private Music Lessons:

Academic workload credit is 0.67 load credits for each contact hour per student enrolled. (3 students taught for one contact hour each = 2 workload credits).

Table 2
Undergraduate and Graduate Instruction

Credit is given to faculty for undergraduate and/or graduate teaching based on the following table:

| Faculty | Teaching Level | Teaching Load Credits Per Semester Credit Hour |
|---|---|---|
| Regular Tenure/Tenure Track | UndergraduateGraduate | 1.001.33 |
| Non-Tenured | UndergraduateGraduate | 1.001.25 |

Table 3
Teaching Load Credits per Contact Hour

Teaching Load Credits (TLC's) awarded per contact hour for various types of courses.

| Type of Course | Abbreviation | TLC Credits Formula | Example |
|---|---|---|---|
| Lecture:Undergraduate course | LEC | 1 (SCH) | An undergraduate course listed as 3 hours lecture and 0 hours laboratory yields 3 workload credits. (e.g., 3-0 = 3 workload credits). |
| Lecture:Graduate course (Master's & Doctorate) | GRD | 1.33 (SCH) | A graduate course listed as (3-0) credit 3 |

|---|---|---|---|
| | | | yields a teaching credit of 4.0 hours. |
| Seminar | SEM | SCH | 1 credit hour section = 1 workload credit. |
| Laboratory or recitation | LAB | Contact Hours X 0.5 | A lab course that meets 3 times per week would yield 1.5 contact hours. |
| Lecture/Lab | LCL | Lec Hrs + Lab Hours X 0.5 | The lecture portion of a 2:3 lecture/lab course would yield 2 workload credits for the lecture and 1.5 contact hours for the lab, for a total workload value of 3.5 hours. |
| Intensive Lab: (Nursing Clinical, Music Ensemble, Studio Art, HUPF, etc.) | ILB | Contact Hours Per Week X 0.67 | 3-contact-hour lab section = 2 workload credits. A 6-contact-hour art studio and nursing clinical = 4 workload credits. (Graduate or undergraduate). |
| Practicum | PRA | Teaching credits based on course semester credit hours. | Not to exceed 3 SCH's. |
| Private Lessons | PRL | Contact Hours X 0.67 | A flat 0.67 credits for each contact hour per student enrolled. (For example, 3 students taught for one contact hour each would yield 2 teaching credits). |
| Music Group Instruction | GMU | SCH X 0.5 | Instruction that meets 3 times per week would yield 1.5 contact hours. |
| Independent Study | IDS | (ENR X SCH) | 3 credit course with 3 enrollees would yield 3 workload hours… 3X3/3 = 3 workload hours. Not to exceed 3 teaching credits. |
| Thesis (Chair) | THE | (ENR X SCH)/6 | |
| Doctoral Dissertation (Chair) | DIS | (ENR X SCH)/3 | |
| Student Teaching | ST | (ENR X 0.5) 6-credit-hour course.(ENR X 0.25) 3-credit-hour course | 6 students enrolled in a 6-hour student teaching course = 3 |

| Type of Course | Abbreviation | TLC Credits Formula | Example |
|---|---|---|---|
| | | | academic workload credits. |
| Large Practicum 13+Students | LPR | SCH | Not to exceed 4 SCH's. |
| Overload 51+Students | OVL | SCH X 1.33 | 3-credit-hour course section = 4 workload credits. |

ENR – Enrollment
SCH – Semester Credit Hour

Equivalent Teaching Credits

The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board (THECB) guidelines require that equivalent teaching credits be grouped in accordance with Faculty Appointment Codes. This means that all equivalent teaching credits must be classified as direct instructional activities (01), or administrative assignments (02). See Section 8 for more information on faculty appointment codes.

3. ADMINISTRATIVE ASSIGNMENTS

Faculty members assigned to administrative positions below the level of dean may receive academic workload credit for performing those duties. The amount of workload credit for administrative duties that a faculty member receives is dependent upon the complexity of the department or program, the assigned duties of the position, and the number of faculty members or students supervised. Eligibility for workload credit is determined by the appropriate administrator and approved by the Provost.

- Positions below the level of dean in which a faculty member is given an administrative, supervisory or coordinative assignment directly related to the instructional programs and purposes of the university include assistant dean, department chair, academic program coordinator, etc.

4. NON-ADMINISTRATIVE ACADEMIC ASSIGNMENTS

Academic workload credit may be given for non-administrative academic assignments, including instruction-related activities, scholarship, service, and other academically related assignments.

During the academic year, a faculty member, with the approval of the department chair and college dean may request possible academic workload credits for non-administrative assignments including: (1) instruction-related assignments, (2) scholarship, (3) service, and (4) special circumstances. Below is an explanation of the types of activities included in each of these categories.

Instruction-related Assignments

Adjustments to workload credits may be allowed for various instruction-related assignments, including teaching assignments that include additional responsibilities. This category includes, but is not restricted to:

- Large Lecture Classes: Large lecture and/or survey classes (enrollment over 50 students), especially those that involve supervision and coordination of teaching assistants, graders, or multiple laboratories or discussion sections may receive additional workload credit to compensate for the additional workload involved in teaching these courses (up to 4 workload credits).

- Curriculum and Course Development: Faculty involved in developing new degree programs, conducting major curriculum revisions of new or existing courses, or developing department-wide online courses, may receive additional workload credits depending on the complexity and amount of work involved (up to 3 workload credits).

- Team Teaching: Instructors who team-teach classes receive academic workload credit in proportion to their instructional responsibility for the course. (For example, two instructors each having 50% responsibility for teaching a 3-credit-hour lecture course would each receive 1.5 academic workload credits.) Assignment of workload credit will be determined prior to the course being taught with approval of the department chair and college dean.

- Field-based Course Work: Faculty members who teach two or more field-based courses may receive additional workload credits depending on the complexity and amount of work involved (up to 3 workload credits).

Scholarship Workload Credits

While research, scholarship and/or creative activity is required for all faculty in tenure or tenure-track positions, a limited number of academic workload credits may be assigned for exceptional research, scholarship, or creative activities. Faculty granted academic workload credit for these activities must demonstrate progress in their efforts at the end of each semester of the workload credit.

- Preparation of Research Grant and Contract Proposals: Faculty engaged in actively funded research may receive additional workload credits to prepare a major research grant or contract proposal (up to 3 hours of workload credit). A major research grant is defined as one that requires significant and time-consuming development work, whereby the faculty member devotes a minimum of 55% effort/time to the grant. The grant budget is relative to the size of the sponsored project.

- Externally Funded Grants: A faculty member may receive additional workload credits when funding is provided by external research grants or contracts (up to 6 workload credits per term).

- Endowed Faculty/Chairs or Regent's Professors: Endowed faculty/chairs or Regents professors will usually receive a workload of 6 credit hours per semester (a teaching load of 2 courses per semester) as long as their scholarly output is maintained at a level expected for Endowed Faculty/Chairs or Regent's Professors. Refer to their employment contract for specifics.

- New Tenure-Track Faculty: During their first year of employment, faculty new to PVAMU may receive additional workload credits for the purpose of establishing their research agendas and developing courses (up to 3 hours of workload credit per semester).

Service Workload Credits

A faculty member may receive academic workload credit for extraordinary service at the university, in the academic discipline, and to the public.

- Professional Service Activities: The amount of workload credit granted by the dean for service depends on the complexity and workload of the service activity. Faculty members may receive up to three (3) academic workload credits for service activities such as: writing a major training or professional development grant, chairing a major university or college/departmental committee, chairing an accreditation self-study task force, editing a major academic journal, serving in a leadership role in a national or regional professional organization, or carrying an unusually heavy service assignment (e.g., faculty senate chair, strategic planning committee chair, etc.).

Workload Credit for Special Circumstances

The President may grant academic workload credit for special presidential assignments.

5. SPECIAL CONDITIONS REGARDING FACULTY WORKLOAD COMPLIANCE

Occasionally, there may be instances where faculty members are non-compliant with the minimum faculty workload requirements due to special conditions. In those instances, the department head must provide a written explanation to the college dean for each faculty member not in compliance. Departmental compliance reports are submitted to the Provost and Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs (Provost) for review and approval and then routed to the OIRE and the Office of Human Resources. For regular faculty who are not in compliance, the department head must initiate an appropriate Employee Payroll Action Form to adjust the individual's teaching salary percentage.

6. RESPONSIBILITY FOR MONITORING WORKLOAD ASSIGNMENTS

In compliance with University Rule 12.03.99.P1, college deans have the overall responsibility for monitoring the workload of individual faculty in their college as reported by the department head(s).

Department heads are responsible for assigning and monitoring the workload of faculty within their department to ensure compliance with the workload requirements and assigning other academic duties equitably within the department.

The department head will notify the college dean by memorandum of all faculty members who are not in compliance with the workload requirements including an explanation for each instance of non-compliance. Faculty who are not in compliance are in violation of System Policy 12.03 and University Rule 12.03.99.P1.

The department head must report all faculty workloads to the OIRE, college dean and the Provost.

The OIRE will consolidate the reports from the colleges to generate the final Faculty Workload Compliance Report and shall prepare a list of faculty not in compliance with the minimum workload requirement. This report shall be sent to the Provost for review and approval.

7. TEACHING ASSIGNMENT OVERLOADS

Occasionally, the need arises for the department head to assign teaching duties above those which are normally assigned. The department head must determine when the additional load becomes an overload, warranting extra pay, as opposed to an additional teaching assignment. Factors to be considered in determining what constitutes an overload include:

- Number of course preparations;
- Total number of students;
- Nature of the course;
- Contact hours involved; and,
- Other responsibilities of the faculty member.

8. FACULTY APPOINTMENT CODES

Faculty appointment codes to be used when reporting faculty workload information to the Office of Institutional Research and Effectiveness are listed below.

Appointments related to the Instruction Function:

- 01 Direct instructional activities, which include interaction with students related to instruction, preparation for such instruction, and evaluation of student performance. The various types of instruction include: lecture, laboratory, practicum, seminar, private lesson, independent study and research.
- 02 Administrative assignments, which directly supplement the teaching function, such as heads of teaching departments, coordinator of special programs or multi-section courses, etc.

Appointments related to Functions other than Instruction (For elements of cost to the State other than faculty salaries):

- Appointment 11 Academic Support: Assignments include activities in the offices of academic and graduate deans, directors of major teaching department groupings like colleges, schools or divisions, and librarians. Not included are the offices of the heads of teaching departments, which are included in Appointment 02.
- Appointment 12 Research: Faculty assignments for activities specifically organized to produce research outcomes.

- Appointment 13 Public Service, Student Services, Institutional Support, Operation and Maintenance of Plant, Auxiliary Enterprise Operations: Activities associated with admissions and registration, financial aid, student affairs, executive direction and control, business and fiscal management, personnel, administrative data processing, campus security, purchasing, physical plant administration, and auxiliary enterprise operations.

9. REQUESTS FOR REVIEW OF ACADEMIC WORKLOAD ASSIGNMENTS

Any faculty member may request a review of their workload assignment by the college dean and/or Provost

10. REQUIRED REPORTS

The Assistant Vice President for the Office of Institutional Research & Effectiveness shall collect, analyze, compile and consolidate data necessary to generate the Faculty Report (CBM-008) as required by the THECB. The standard reporting format and deadlines as provided by THECB will be followed.

The OIRE shall also prepare a Faculty Workload Report for each long semester indicating all appointments held by faculty members at the university, the salary paid to each appointment, the percent of time of each appointment, and the source of funds from which salary payments are made.

Justification shall be provided for each instance of noncompliance. The report shall be submitted to the chancellor and be available for review by members of the Board of Regents.

A report shall be presented to the Board of Regents showing courses with drop rates in excess of 30 percent.

Rule 12.03.99.T1 Faculty Academic Workload and Reporting Requirements

Approved: February 12, 2015
Next Scheduled Review: February 12, 2020

Rule Statement

This rule establishes the faculty workload standards and procedures as well as the conditions under which the workload of faculty may be adjusted.

Reason for Rule

This rule provides guidelines for the implementation of System Policy 12.03, Faculty Academic Workload and Reporting Requirements, regarding minimum academic workload for faculty.

Procedures and Responsibilities

1. GENERAL

1.1. To support the mission of Tarleton State University, members of the faculty perform their classroom duties and carry out a variety of essential functions. As part of faculty responsibilities, faculty members are expected to satisfactorily perform the following functions: academic advising; supervision of undergraduate and graduate students; direction of individual studies, theses and dissertations; leadership in curriculum development; participation in college and university governance; scholarship and research; and participation in professional activities, community activities and special projects of the university.

1.2. Acknowledging the diverse responsibilities of its faculty, the university supports an equitable and reasonable workload assignment system. The university follows the guidelines described below which specifies the amount of workload credit that may be granted for various faculty assignments.

1.2.1. The academic workload standard for full-time tenure track faculty who are teaching undergraduate courses is 12 hours of normal classroom teaching per semester (Part-time faculty workload credits are proportional to the full-time equivalent appointment). These workload credits are assigned for direct instruction and for a variety of instructionally-related, administrative, scholarly, and service activities.

1.2.2. The academic workload standard for tenure track full time faculty who are teaching only masters level graduate courses is 9 hours of normal classroom teaching per semester. For those tenure track full time faculty who are teaching only doctoral level courses, the load is 6 hours of normal classroom teaching per semester. Graduate faculty teaching a combination of undergraduate and graduate level courses may bank graduate courses taught in the long semester toward future released time for their own scholarship. See section 3.4 below for more information on course banking.

1.2.3. Assignment of non-instructional workload credits are made by the dean of each college based on recommendations made by the appropriate department head in consultation with the departmental faculty. Non-instructional workload assignments require the approval of the provost and executive vice president for Academic Affairs (provost).

1.2.4. The academic workload standard for non-tenure track full-time faculty is 15 hours per semester.

2. CREDIT-GENERATING DIRECT INSTRUCTION

2.1. Direct teaching activities include but are not limited to the following:

2.1.1. Instruction of lecture and seminar courses

2.1.2. Laboratory and clinical instruction, music ensemble, and studio art

2.1.3. Supervision of student teachers

2.1.4. Private music lessons

2.1.5. Chairing master's thesis committees

2.1.6. Teaching a practicum as a group course

2.1.7. Team teaching

2.1.8. Chairing a doctoral dissertation committee

3. TEACHING LOAD AND RELEASED TIME

3.1. Administrative Assignments

3.1.1. Faculty members may receive academic workload credit for administrative assignments. The amount of workload credit for administrative duties is dependent upon the complexity of the department or program, the assigned duties of the position, and the number of faculty members or students supervised. Approval for workload credit is determined by appropriate administrator and approved by the provost.

3.1.2. Positions in which a faculty member is given an administrative, supervisory, or coordinative assignment directly related to the instruction programs and purposes of the university include: assistant dean, department head or director of a school, coordinator of a disciplinary area, and coordinator or director of a center or a program.

3.2. Scholarship

3.2.1. Academic workload credit may be assigned for research, intellectual contributions, or creative activity. Faculty granted academic workload credit for these activities must demonstrate progress in their efforts at the end of each semester of the workload credit.

3.2.2. Academic workload credit may be received for certain activities released to scholarship, such as preparation of a major research grant or contract proposal. Also, a faculty member may receive academic workload credits when external grants fund his or her salary.

3.3. Service

3.3.1. A faculty member may receive academic workload credit for extraordinary service at the university, in the academic discipline, and/or to the public.

3.4. Graduate Faculty Released Time

3.4.1. Graduate faculty teaching both undergraduate and graduate courses, may bank graduate instruction in organized classes toward future released time for their own scholarship. One 3 hour graduate course may be banked as one hour toward a total of 3 banked hours for later use by the faculty member. The anticipated use of any banked hours must be agreed upon by the department head and the faculty member so as not to jeopardize needed departmental instructional cycle.

4. RELEASED TIME FOR ADMINISTRATIVE AND COMMITTEE RESPONSIBILITIES

4.1 The minimum and normal teaching load for a department head is 15 hours for 12 months. Exceptions to this would be negotiated between the department head and their respective dean and provost.

4.2 Generally, deans, department heads, assistant/associate vice presidents, and the provost have 12-month appointments. For other academic administrators such as directors, appointments may be 10.5 or 12 months. Exceptions to this would be negotiated between the respective director and/or department head, dean, and the provost.

4.3 The Faculty Senate president should receive one-quarter released time for the fall and spring semesters. The Curriculum Committee chair should receive released time for the fall semester and for the spring semester if needed. Typically, released time is not given for chairing major university committees. In special cases, released time shall be authorized only with the recommendation of the executive vice president for academic affairs (provost) and approval by the president.

4.4 When a faculty member assumes administrative duties on a temporary basis, granting released time to that individual may be appropriate as recommended by the provost and approval by the president.

5. OVERLOAD

5.1 Tarleton has established a minimum contact hour teaching load of 12 hours for tenured or tenure-track faculty (9 hours for faculty teaching only graduate masters courses and 6 hours for doctoral courses). Teaching loads below the established minimum must be explained in official reports. Tarleton does not establish a maximum contact hour teaching load. In some departments, because of the nature of their courses, the average load for the department is near the minimum. In other departments, again because of the nature of their courses or because of fiscal or other constraints, departmental averages are above the minimum contact hour load.

5.2 Occasionally, the need arises for the department head to assign teaching duties above those which are normally assigned. The department head must determine when the additional load becomes an overload, warranting extra pay, as opposed to an additional teaching assignment. Factors to be considered in determining what constitutes an overload include the number of course preparations, the total number of students, the nature of the course, the contact hours involved, and other responsibilities of the faculty members.

5.3 When the need for additional teaching services arises, the department head should first consider whether that load can reasonably be added to the load of a faculty member in the department. An example would be a problems course. If the load is such that it cannot reasonably be added, the department head should make every effort to find a qualified adjunct faculty member for the teaching assignment. If that fails, it should be assigned to a full-time faculty member, on a voluntary basis, if possible, in return for additional monetary compensation or future released time. Prior approval through normal administrative channels is required for the overload assignment. If future released time is chosen as the method of compensation, it must be taken within six months and could include summer school. If monetary compensation is chosen, it will be negotiated according to current policy and will depend on rank and experience.

6. UNIVERSITY SCHOLAR

Tarleton confers a limited number of positions as the University Scholar to encourage exceptional scholarly and creative activity by faculty. University Scholars shall receive up to six hours of released time per regular semester. Additional benefits, such as travel money and clerical support, may be awarded at the discretion of the president.

7. SUMMER EMPLOYMENT FOR FACULTY

7.1 Summer teaching opportunities are based on student demand for particular courses. As a result, some departments have little or no summer teaching while others have full-time employment available. The salary for summer teaching is calculated at the same monthly rate as during the preceding nine months. All summer teaching appointments are contingent upon enrollment.

7.2 Department heads and deans are expected to work closely in matters of scheduling and enrollment management. The provost is responsible for making the decision on whether classes may be taught if they do not meet the stated minimum enrollments.

8. FACULTY WORKING ON TERMINAL DEGREES

8.1 Tarleton supports and encourages faculty who seek to improve their academic credentials. Support to faculty who are working on terminal degrees includes, but is not limited to the following:

- Flexible scheduling of teaching load while taking courses toward a terminal degree, studying for comprehensive exams, or working on the dissertation;
- Reduced teaching load for one or more semesters while working on the terminal degree, with equivalent reduction in compensation;
- A leave of absence without pay, typically for one or two semesters, while meeting residency requirements in a graduate program, studying for comprehensive exams, or working on the dissertation;
- Released time for one or two semesters while working on a terminal degree. To receive released time, the faculty member must agree to continue employment at Tarleton for an amount of time to be specified in an agreement with the university;
- Absence from campus, without reduction in pay, for taking comprehensive exams or defending the dissertation or proposal;
- Reduction in other university responsibilities, such as academic advisement or committee service.

8.2 A faculty member wishing to receive any of these adjustments should seek approval from his/her department head and dean and the provost. A request for leave of absence or flexible teaching schedule should be made before the department prepares its course schedule for the semester(s) in question. There may be other accommodations that would benefit a particular faculty member who is working on a terminal degree. Such accommodations may be arranged on an individual basis through normal academic channels.

9. MONITORING WORKLOAD

9.1. College Responsibilities and Procedures

9.1.1. The ultimate responsibility for ensuring compliance with workload rules and equity across the college lies with the college dean.

9.2. University Responsibilities

9.2.1. The provost has responsibility for the approval of academic workloads in conformity with university rules and procedures and The Texas A&M University System (system) policies and regulations. The ultimate responsibility for ensuring workload equity across the university lies with the provost. Each semester the university submits a report to the system and the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board regarding workload compliance.

12.03.99.L1 Faculty Academic Workload and Reporting Requirements

First Approved: November 6, 2014
Last Revised: November 6, 2014
Next Scheduled Review: November, 2017

Supplements: System Policy 12.03, Faculty Academic Workload and Report Requirements

1. GENERAL

1.1 To support the mission of Texas A&M International University, members of the faculty perform their classroom duties and carry out a variety of essential functions. As part of their regular responsibilities, faculty members are expected to satisfactorily perform the following functions: teaching; academic advising; supervision of undergraduate and/or graduate students; direction of individual studies/theses/dissertations; leadership in curriculum development; participation in department/division, college/school, and university governance; scholarship; and participation in professional activities, community activities, and special projects of the university.

1.2 Acknowledging that faculty members have diverse responsibilities, the University supports an equitable and reasonable workload assignment system. The university follows the guidelines described below, which specify the amount of workload credit that may be granted for various faculty assignments.

1.3 The academic teaching workload standard for full-time tenure/tenure-track faculty members at Texas A&M International University is 12 workload credits per semester. (Part-time faculty workload credits are proportional to the full-time equivalent appointment.) Academic teaching workload for full-time non-tenure/tenure-track faculty is 15 workload credits per semester. These workload credits are assigned for direct instruction and for a variety of instructionally-related, administrative, scholarly, and service activities. Expectations, outcomes, and rationale must be clear for any faculty member who teaches fewer than twelve Semester Credit Hours.

1.4 Approval for assignments of non-instructional workload credit is made by the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs on the basis of recommendations from the appropriate Dean and department chair in consultation with departmental faculty.

1.5 The minimum teaching load for full-time faculty members who do not have administrative assignments and who are not on development leave is nine semester credit hours or equivalent per semester. Participation in the teaching of undergraduate students by senior faculty is strongly encouraged. In accordance with System Policy 12.03, the president may approve adjustments to teaching load upon recommendation of the provost.

2. CREDIT-GENERATING DIRECT INSTRUCTION

2.1 Direct teaching activities include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) Instruction in lecture and seminar courses
(2) Laboratory and clinical instruction, music ensemble, and studio art
(3) Supervision of undergraduate and/or graduate students
(4) Private music lessons
(5) Chairing master's thesis committees
(6) Chairing doctoral dissertation committees
(7) Teaching a practicum as a group course
(8) Team teaching

2.2 Workload credits are assigned by the Dean on the basis of the recommendations from the department chair and in consultation with the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs.

3. SUMMER TEACHING

3.1 Unless specifically stated otherwise, faculty members are employed for nine months and thus not guaranteed employment during the summer session.

3.2 When possible, a faculty member will be offered the opportunity to teach one session (i.e., one course) in the summer. Any additional courses would be offered to faculty based upon student need.

4. ADMINISTRATIVE ASSIGNMENTS

Faculty members may receive academic workload credit for administrative assignments. The amount of workload credit for administrative duties that a faculty member receives is contingent upon the complexity of the department or program, the assigned duties of the position, and the number of faculty members or students supervised. Positions in which a faculty member is given an administrative, supervisory, or coordinative assignment directly related to the instructional programs and purposes of the university include: associate provost/associate vice president, assistant/associate dean, chairperson of a department/division; coordinator of a disciplinary area, and coordinator or director of a center, program, or clinic.

5. NON-ADMINISTRATIVE ACADEMIC ASSIGNMENTS

5.1 Academic workload credit may also be given for non-administrative academic assignments, including instructionally related activities, scholarship, service, and other academically related assignments.

5.2 During the academic year, a faculty member may request possible teaching workload credit for non-administrative reasons, including: (1) instructionally-related activities, (2) scholarship, (3) service, and (4) special circumstances. Release from teaching requires approval of the department chair, the college dean and the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs. Below is an explanation of the types of activities included in each of these categories.

5.3 Instructionally-related Assignments

Adjustments to teaching workload credits may be allowed for different instructionally-related assignments, including teaching assignments that include additional responsibilities. This category includes, but is not restricted to:

(1) teaching large classes, especially those with extensive writing assignments, essay exams, or similar complex tasks, or that involve supervision and coordination of teaching assistants, graders, or of multiple laboratory or discussion sections.
(2) developing new degree programs, conducting major curricular revision, or developing courses in a new format.
(3) teaching field-based courses
(4) coordinating student advising

5.4 Scholarship

5.4.1 Academic workload credit may be assigned for research/intellectual contributions/creative activity.

5.4.2 Tenure-track faculty members are eligible for release time in order to establish their research agenda and to demonstrate scholarly productivity during their probationary period.

5.4.2.1 In their first two years, tenure-track faculty will be given 6 workload credits per semester (a teaching load of 2 courses per semester).

5.4.2.2 The amount and terms of release time beyond the second year will be negotiated with the Dean of the school or college, in consultation with the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs at the time of the faculty member's initial appointment.

5.4.3 Tenured faculty members are eligible to apply for a two-course release per year to pursue research. Expectations for excellence in teaching remain the same for faculty awarded release time for research as they do for all faculty members.

5.4.3.1 Tenured faculty members seeking release time for research must submit for review an application through the appropriate Dean to a College Research Committee representative of the tenured faculty in the various departments in the college.

5.4.3.2 The Committee will evaluate the merits of the proposed plans and make a recommendation to the Dean of the college or school.

5.4.3.3 Recommendations will be forwarded to the Provost for consideration and final approval.

5.4.4 Baseline Expectations for Faculty Awarded Release Time for Research

5.4.4.1 Documentation of scholarly effort each year.

5.4.4.2 Minimum of a publication or equivalent accepted in the second year.

5.4.4.3 A faculty member should plan to make at least one scholarly presentation or equivalent every year.

5.4.4.4 If faculty members do not meet Baseline Requirements, they must submit a written explanation justifying continuance for release time to the College Research Committee, who will forward their recommendation to the Dean. Recommendations will be forwarded to the Provost, who will make the final decision on whether release time will be awarded in the future.

5.4.5 Additional Release Time for Research

5.4.5.1 Faculty whose scholarly achievements are characterized by consistently high levels of productivity over a sustained period of time are eligible to apply for one additional course release time per academic year, or a total of three course release time per academic year.

5.4.5.2 The review process for faculty seeking three course release time for research is the same for faculty seeking two course release time for research.

5.4.5.3 Faculty members receiving three course release time are expected to produce one refereed article per year or make substantial progress toward completion of a book or the equivalent. Expectations for excellence in teaching remain the same as for all faculty members.

5.4.5.4 Regent's Professors will receive a workload of 6 credit hours per semester (a teaching load of 2 courses per semester) as long as their scholarly output is maintained at a level expected for Regent's Professors.

5.4.6 General Considerations

5.4.6.1 In the event that University resources are insufficient to fund all qualifying applications, the Provost, in consultation with the President, will determine the amount of release time that will be awarded in a given year.

5.4.6.2 Faculty members teaching a doctoral seminar will receive one course release during the semester in which the seminar is delivered, and may receive one course release in the semester prior to the semester in which the seminar is delivered. Faculty members teaching a doctoral seminar are expected to engage in a level of scholarly activity consistent with that of faulty receiving release time for research.

5.4.6.3 Faculty teaching exclusively graduate level courses may receive appropriate release time in recognition of the need for extensive research and course preparation.

5.4.6.4 Faculty may submit proposals of a more limited scope, requesting a one-course release for one semester. An outcome clearly achievable in a short time should accompany the proposal.

5.4.6.5 Additional release time may be granted for research projects of exceptional merit that require an extensive commitment of time.

6. SERVICE

A faculty member may receive academic workload credit for extraordinary service at the university, in the academic discipline, and/or to the public.

7. SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

7.1 The President may grant academic workload credit for special presidential assignments.

7.2 With the consent of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, a college dean may grant academic workload credit for reasons not described in this rule.

8. MONITORING WORKLOAD

8.1 College Responsibilities and Procedures

8.1.1 Within the framework of university workload rules, each college, with formal advice from and by majority vote of the faculty, will develop procedures for assigning academic workload credit.

8.1.2 The ultimate responsibility for ensuring compliance with workload rules and equity across the college lies with the college dean.

8.2 University Responsibilities: The Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs has final authority for the approval of academic workload in conformity with university rules and procedures and Texas A&M University System policies. The ultimate responsibility for ensuring workload equity across the university lies with the Provost. Each year the university submits a report to The Texas A&M University System and the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board regarding workload compliance.

9. REQUESTS FOR REVIEW OF ACADEMIC WORKLOAD ASSIGNMENTS

Texas A&M International University recognizes the right of faculty to request a review of workload assignments before a panel of peers.
