12.03.99.R1 Faculty Workload

Approved August 8, 2013
Next Scheduled Review August 8, 2018

Rule Statement

This rule is established to provide specific guidelines regarding the workload for faculty. The assignments will be implemented only as institutional resources are available, with teaching loads having the first priority.

Reason for Rule

This rule documents the standards for full-time faculty academic workload requirements and the range of acceptable assignments within the definitions of faculty workload in accordance with System Policy 12.03 Faculty Academic Workload and Reporting Requirements.

Procedures and Responsibilities

1. GENERAL

    1.1 The workload assignment must be primarily the responsibility of an academic unit and its department or college head. These administrators must be held accountable for individual compliance with institutional procedures. (THECB Faculty Workload Policy Guidelines, 1999)

    1.2 In order to accommodate disciplinary, department and college differences, each college will establish, publish and consistently administer faculty load practices that follow guidelines described in this rule.

2. TEACHING LOAD

    2.1 Tenured/Tenure-track faculty

        2.1.1 Academic teaching load is only part of total workload which also includes Research, Scholarly and Creative Activities (RSCA).

2.1.2 The normal academic teaching load for tenured/tenure-track faculty members is 24 workload credits per academic year.

2.1.3 Academic teaching load should not exceed 15 workload credits in any given long semester.

2.2 Non-tenure-track faculty

2.2.1 For non-tenure-track faculty, teaching is the primary assignment, though professional development and service may be expected as well. However, there is no RSCA expectation for these faculty members.

2.2.2 The normal academic teaching load for non-tenure-track faculty is 30 workload credits per year.

2.2.3 Academic teaching load should not exceed 18 workload credits in any given long semester.

2.2.4 Faculty converted from tenure-track to non-tenure-track will have an academic teaching load of 30 workload credits per year.

2.3 Teaching loads may vary as specified by contract, but must meet minimum standards described in System Policy 12.03.

2.4 The non-instructional workload may include administrative, scholarly and service activities.

3. CREDIT-GENERATING ACTIVITIES

3.1 For the purpose of calculating teaching loads, the following equivalents will be used:

3.1.1 Undergraduate Lecture and Seminar Courses: 1.0 semester credit hours equivalent to 1.0 workload credit.

3.1.2 Graduate Lecture and Seminar Courses: 1.0 semester credit hours equivalent to 1.33 workload credits.

3.2 Each college shall develop and maintain a published procedure for workload in the following areas:

3.2.1 Honor's Thesis Supervision.

3.2.2 Master's Thesis Supervision.

3.2.3 Doctoral Dissertation Supervision.

3.2.4 Independent Study.

3.2.5 Laboratory Instruction.

3.2.6 Clinical Instruction.

3.2.7 Music Studio and Ensemble Instruction.

3.2.8 Art Studio Instruction.

3.2.9 Team Teaching.

3.3 College procedures are subject to periodic review and approval by the Provost, in consultation with Deans' Council and the Faculty Senate President.

3.4 It is the responsibility of department heads and college deans to ensure that workload credits are assigned equitably.

3.4.1 Faculty complaints about workload credit assignment are to be addressed at the department level and referred to the college dean, if unresolved.

3.4.2 The Dean will convene an ad hoc Panel of Peers to review workload complaints, as described in Section 7 of this rule.

3.5 Workload credits not applied during an academic year must be applied in the next long semester, or they will be forfeited.

3.5.1 A faculty member may voluntarily waive claim to workload credits.

3.5.2 Voluntary forfeiture must be accompanied by a written agreement, signed by the faculty member, the Department Head and the College Dean.

3.6 An individual faculty member should not be responsible for teaching more than 500 undergraduate students or 150 graduate students in a given semester without appropriate support services.

3.6.1 Appropriate support services may include one or more of the following, as deemed appropriate by the faculty member, the Department Head and the College Dean:

3.6.1.1 Graduate assistant, or

3.6.1.2 Part-time administrative assistant, or

3.6.1.3 Student worker to assist with non-class related activities, or

3.6.1.4 Other, as deemed appropriate and necessary.

4. ADMINISTRATIVE ASSIGNMENTS

4.1 Faculty members may receive workload credit for designated administrative assignments.

4.2 The amount of workload credit is dependent upon the complexity of the assignment and the number of faculty, staff and/or students supervised.

4.3 Positions may include:

4.3.1 Assistant or Associate Dean.

4.3.2 Director of a School, Center, Program or Clinic.

4.3.3 Department Head.

4.3.4 Program Coordinator.

4.3.5 Others, as deemed necessary.

5. NON-ADMINISTRATIVE ASSIGNMENTS

5.1 Adjustments to workload credit may also be given for non-administrative assignments for special circumstances that advance the mission of the department, college and university.

5.2 These activities may include, but are not limited to:

5.2.1 Program and Curriculum Revisions, such as:

5.2.1.1 Developing a new degree program.

5.2.1.2 Conducting major curriculum revisions.

5.2.1.3 Developing a new course.

5.2.1.4 Developing an online version of an existing course.

5.2.1.5 Program reviews, including evaluation of SLOs and program effectiveness.

5.2.2 Coordinating student advising or student learning support activities.

5.2.3 Scholarship-related activities

5.2.3.1 Preparation of a major grant or contract proposal.

5.2.3.2 Initiation of a major research project.

5.2.3.3 Reassigned time required for and funded by an external funding source.

5.2.3.4 Reassigned time for scholarly activities will comply with time and effort requirements described in University Procedure 15.01.01.R0.04 Time and Effort Certification.

5.2.4 New faculty may receive workload credit for a defined time for:

5.2.4.1 Course development.

5.2.4.2 Initiation of scholarly activities.

5.2.4.3 Other duties as necessary to meet departmental expectations.

5.2.5 Supervision and direction of doctoral level graduate students.

5.2.6 Extraordinary service activities directly supporting the institutional mission, goals, and/or public interest as determined by the President or the Provost.

5.2.7 Special presidential initiatives.

5.3 With the consent of the Provost, a college dean may grant workload credit for reasons not described.

6. MONITORING WORKLOAD

6.1 Consistent with System Policies and University Rules and Procedures, ensuring an equitable academic workload is ultimately the responsibility of the Provost, in consultation with Deans and Departments Heads.

6.2 All faculty workload reports are to be submitted to the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, who submits the reports through administrative channels for approval and comment as appropriate prior to submitting the reports to the Chancellor and the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board (THECB). The standard reporting format and deadlines as provided by the THECB in accordance with Section 51.402 (c) and Section 51.403 (b), (c) and (d) of the Texas Education Code will be followed.

7. REQUEST FOR REVIEW OF ACADEMIC WORKLOAD ASSIGNMENTS

7.1 The faculty member has the right to request a review of workload assignment before a Panel of Peers.

7.2 The Panel of Peers will:

7.2.1 Be established on an ad hoc basis only.

7.2.2 Consist of three to five tenured faculty from the faculty member's college, preferably from outside the faculty member's department.

7.2.3 Conduct an investigation into the faculty member's complaint, using whatever materials or means necessary to reach a valid conclusion.

7.2.4 Make a recommendation to the Dean, who will make a decision concerning the complaint.

7.3 The Dean's decision will be communicated to the faculty member and department head.

7.4 Should the faculty member not be satisfied with the Dean's decision, all materials will be forwarded to the Provost for review and final disposition.

12.03.99.C1 Faculty Workload

Approved: July 31, 2000
Revised: April 4, 2017
Next Scheduled Review: April 4, 2022

Rule Statement

Faculty are expected to satisfactorily perform commonly accepted duties which will advance and enhance the teaching/learning process, the quality of academic programs, the impact of academic and professional service, and each member's respective academic discipline.

Reason for Rule

Acknowledging the diverse responsibilities of its faculty, the university supports an equitable and reasonable workload assignment system. The university follows the guidelines described below and in University Procedure 12.03.99.C1.01 Assignment of Faculty Workload Credit, which specifies the amount of workload credit that may be granted for various faculty assignments.

Procedures and Responsibilities

1. GENERAL

    1.1 Recognized duties include, but are not limited to, classroom teaching, scholarly study, basic and applied research, creative activities, professional development, student advising/mentoring and counseling, course and curriculum development, continuing education, public service, assistance in the administration of the academic program, participation in college and university governance, special projects of the university, and similar academic activities. These duties are inherent in the life and work of a faculty member.

    1.2 Full-time tenured/tenure-track faculty are expected to accrue 24 workload credits (usually 12 each long term) over the academic year. Full-time non-tenure track faculty are expected to accrue 30 workload credits (usually 15 each long term) over the academic year. These workload credits are assigned for instruction and for a variety of instructionally-related, administrative, scholarly, and service activities.

    1.3 Faculty may be assigned non-instructional workload credit by the dean of each college in consultation with the appropriate department chair.

2. CREDIT-GENERATING INSTRUCTION

2.1 Teaching activities include but are not limited to the following:

(a) lecture courses and seminar courses,

(b) laboratory and clinical instruction,

(c) music ensemble, private music lessons, and studio art,

(d) practicum and internships as group courses, team teaching, and student teacher supervision, and

(e) master's thesis and doctoral dissertation.

2.2 Guidelines for assigning workload credits for these activities are provided in University Procedure 12.03.99.C1.01 Assignment of Faculty Workload Credit.

3. ADMINISTRATIVE ASSIGNMENTS

Faculty members may receive academic workload credit for administrative assignments. The amount of workload credit for administrative duties that a faculty member receives is dependent upon the complexity of the department or program, the assigned duties of the position, and the number of faculty members or students supervised. Positions in which a faculty member is given an administrative, supervisory, or coordinative assignment directly related to the instructional programs and purposes of the university include, but are not limited to: assistant/associate dean, chairperson of a department or director of a school, coordinator of a disciplinary area, graduate program coordinator, and coordinator or director of a center, program, or clinic. For additional information, see University Procedure 12.03.99.C1.01 Assignment of Faculty Workload Credit.

4. NON-ADMINISTRATIVE ACADEMIC ASSIGNMENTS

4.1 Academic workload credit may also be given for non-administrative academic assignments, including instructionally-related activities, scholarship, service, and other academically-related assignments. A faculty member may earn workload credits to be used the current semester or "banked" for subsequent semesters within the academic year (September 1 - May 31). See the information on overloads in University Procedure 12.03.99.C1.01 Assignment of Faculty Workload Credit.

4.2 During the academic year, a faculty member, with the approval of the department chair and college dean, may request possible academic workload credits for non-administrative reasons including: (1) instruction-related activities, (2) scholarship, (3) service, and (4) special circumstances. Below is an explanation of the types of activities included in each of these categories. Specific guidelines on the amount of workload credit allowed for the various activities is provided in University Procedure 12.03.99.C1.01 Assignment of Faculty Workload Credit.

4.2.1 Instruction-related Assignments

Adjustments to workload credits may be allowed for various instructional-related assignments, including teaching assignments that include additional responsibilities. This category includes, but is not restricted to:

(a) teaching large classes, especially those that involve supervision and coordination of teaching assistants, graders, or of multiple laboratory or discussion sections. This will be furthered defined at the college level.

(b) developing new degree programs or conducting major curriculum revisions, and

(c) teaching field-based courses.

4.2.2 Scholarship

4.2.2.1 Academic workload credit may be assigned for research/intellectual contributions/creative activity. Faculty granted academic workload credit for these activities must demonstrate satisfactory progress in their efforts during their annual evaluations by chairs, directors, and/or deans. When appropriate (at the discretion of the college dean), this designation may be considered to incorporate workload credit for service on, or chairing of, individual graduate committees.

4.2.2.2 Academic workload credit may be provided for certain activities related to scholarship. Also, a faculty member may receive academic workload credits when external grants fund his or her salary.

4.2.3 Service

A faculty member may receive academic workload credit for extraordinary service at the university, in the academic discipline, and/or to the public. (See Sections 3.3 of University Procedure 12.03.99.C1.01 Assignment of Faculty Workload Credit for more information.)

4.2.4 Special Circumstances

4.2.4.1 The president may grant academic workload credit for special presidential assignments.

4.2.4.2 The provost and vice president for academic affairs may grant academic workload credit for reasons not described in this rule.

4.2.4.3 A college dean may grant academic workload credit for reasons not described in this rule.

5. WORKLOAD RESPONSIBILITIES AND PROCEDURES

5.1 The responsibility for ensuring compliance with workload rules and equity within the college lies with the college dean. See University Procedure 12.03.99.C1.01 Assignment of Faculty Workload Credit for information on the Faculty Workload Report process.

5.2 Within the framework of university workload rules, in consultation with and by majority vote of the college faculty, each college will develop procedures for assigning academic workload credit. See University Procedure 12.03.99.C1.01 Assignment of Faculty Workload Credit for additional information.

5.3 College-level procedures relating to assigning academic workload credit will be reviewed and revised by each college within six months (excluding summers) of published updates to this rule and/or the associated procedure: 12.03.99.C1.01 Assignment of Faculty Workload Credit. The typical review cycle is every five years, but updates to related system policies or regulations and/or other circumstances may result in more frequent reviews.

5.4 The Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs has final responsibility for the approval of academic workload in conformity with university rules and procedures and Texas A&M University System policies and regulations. The ultimate responsibility for ensuring workload equity across the university lies with the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs. Each semester the university submits a report to The Texas A&M University System and the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board regarding workload compliance.

6. REQUESTS FOR REVIEW OF ACADEMIC WORKLOAD ASSIGNMENTS

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi recognizes the right of faculty members to request a review of workload assignments before a panel of peers. For details about the review process, see University Procedure 12.03.99.C1.01 Assignment of Faculty Workload Credit.
