Dear A&M System Training Coordinators:

I am writing to let you know about a new online course in TrainTraq entitled U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (course no. 2113639). The content was provided by the System Office of General Counsel. The course provides an overview of the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act for Texas A&M University System employees and students traveling overseas. Travelers should take this course, as well as International Travel Safety: Safe Passage Presentation (2111728), every three years.

There is not currently a System-level automated rule that assigns these two courses to travelers. Please work with your Risk Management Office to determine who (if anyone) at your university or agency needs to complete them. If you need to develop assignment rules, please let Lesley Mizer or me know.

Thanks,

Pat
